Sen. Harrison Declares Harvey Appointed Ambassador as Reward For Efforts to Discredit Wilson

BITTER ATTACK MADE IN SENATE

Harrison Says Harvey's Actions Only "Comparable to Milton's Hell Hounds"

Called "Vindictive, Self-Anointed, Intolerant Political Accident"

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, charged today in the senate that the appointment of George Harvey by President Harding as ambassador to Great Britain, was a "reward for his efforts" to discredit the Wilson administration.

The Mississippi senator said Mr. Harvey's "pursuit of Wilson through his journals and otherwise, are only comparable to Milton's Hell Hounds that were stationed at the gates of the infernal regions." He added that the ambassador had "no equal as a creator of prejudice and a stirrer of strife," and that he was "a vindictive, self-anointed, intolerant political accident."

Senator Harrison said he feared Col. Harvey's arrival in London would cause Great Britain and other nations to believe that "he will use whatever influence he may possess and the power of his position in attempts to destroy the League of Nations."

O'DALY PLEADS NOT GUILTY

In Court on Charge of Larceny of $40,000 From Boston City Treasury

Had Been Slated to Assume Office of City Treasurer Today

BOSTON, April 21.—Thomas J. O'Daly, who had been slated to assume the office of city treasurer, today appeared in court instead to answer to a charge of larceny of $40,000 of city funds under his care as cashier of the treasury department. According to announcement yesterday by Mayor Peters, O'Daly has admitted that he took the money but today he entered a formal plea of not guilty and the case was continued by agreement until May 9. Bonds of $10,000 under which he was released after his arrest last night, were continued.

The audit of the books of the treasurer's office started several days ago because of the resignation of Thomas W. Murray as city treasurer, probably will not be completed for two weeks. It was ordered largely for the purpose of giving O'Daly a clean slate when he took office as treasurer but instead, it is alleged to have uncovered manipulations of the accounts to cover thefts extending over the 10 years that he has held the office of cashier.

ORGANIZATION OF WAR STAFF

Sec. Weeks Announces Formation of War Staff Headed by Gen. Pershing

To Take Charge of Field Operations of Armies of U. S. in Time of War

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Organization of a war staff headed by General Pershing to take charge of field operations of the armies of the United States in time of war, was announced today by Secretary Weeks.

Instant preparation in time of peace for active military operations was given by the secretary as the reason for the new organization.

The organization headed by General Pershing will be entirely separate from the office of the chief of staff, which will continue to direct the administration of the military establishment in time of peace. General Pershing will have a skeletonized staff which will correspond to that at Chaumont during the world war, and which will concern itself entirely with problems of strategy, tactics and war organization.

MAN SHERIFF FORGOT TO HANG GETS LIFE TERM

SHREVEPORT, La., April 21.—Louis Eaton, the negro the sheriff forgot about when the day set for Eaton's hanging came around last month, is happy today. The state board, after considering the case Wednesday, commuted the death sentence of the negro to life imprisonment, according to reports received here from Baton Rouge, where the board is meeting.

Eaton was convicted of murder several months ago. Governor Parker set the date for the hanging, but the sheriff forgot all about it until the legal date had passed.

When the omission was discovered attorneys for Eaton held that as he had been in jeopardy once, his execution would be illegal. Governor Parker secured opinions from members of the bar, but the attorney general held that as Eaton had been sentenced to be hanged, the law required that the sentence be carried out, unless executive clemency was extended. The matter was then allowed to rest until the meeting of the pardon board.

IN THE LOCAL POLICE COURT

Evidences of Good Citizenship Did Not Help Adam Nasutowicz

Defendant Fined $100 for Operating an Automobile While Intoxicated

Boy Steals From Man Who Befriended, Fed and Sheltered Him

In spite of his protests that he is "an honest fellow," that he pays his taxes, doesn't run into people with his automobile, etc., Adam Nasutowicz was fined $100 in the police court this morning, on charges of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. A charge of drunkenness was filed. Officer Goukin, of the Chelmsford force, testified that the defendant came through the square at a speed of 35 or 40 miles per hour. When he reached the traffic sign, he swerved to the left, said the officer, who added that this was fortunate as there were several people boarding a car on the right. "If he had not gone to the left he would certainly have hit them."

REDUCTION OF WAGES ILLEGAL

Labor Board Rules Against Receiver of Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic R. R.

Declares He Acted in Violation of Spirit and Letter of Transportation Act

CHICAGO, April 21.—The railroad labor board today ruled that the receiver of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad in reducing wages of its employees in compliance with a decision by Federal Judge S. P. Sibley had acted in violation of the spirit and letter of the transportation act.

The board declared that it was powerless to take action in the case at present, and suggested that the employees, most of whom now are on strike, again hold conferences with the owners and, if an agreement is not reached, bring the case back to the labor board.

"The duty to obey a decision of this board is not any less an obligation on the receivers of a road than on the owners of a road," the decision said.

The case first came before the board last January when the road posted notices of wage reductions. Officers of the road told the board the earlier was losing $100,000 monthly and had to cut wages in order to exist. The board ordered the reduction notices withdrawn and told the employees to confer with their workers in accordance with the transportation act. When the case again came up it was brought out that the road did not contest the justice of the wages set by the board but pleaded only inability to pay. The board ruled that the financial condition of the road was not a matter for it to act upon, deciding that such matters should go before the interstate commerce commission.

Eight Policemen and Three Bandits Carried On Running Fight for Two Hours This Morning

Report "Big Bill" Haywood Has Fled From U. S. To Russia

CHICAGO, April 21.—Federal officials today received confidential information that William D. Haywood, secretary of the Industrial Workers of the World and scheduled to begin a sentence at the Leavenworth, Kansas, penitentiary, this week, had fled from the United States and now is in either Moscow or Riga.

Charles F. Clynne, United States district attorney, announced that a search had been started for Haywood.

"He is not at Leavenworth, Chicago nor New York, and we have been privately informed that he has landed either at Moscow or Riga," said Mr. Clynne. "That is all we know about it but we expect to have definite information very quickly."

French and British Premiers Plan Secret Session On Reparations

PARIS, April 21.—Premiers Briand and Lloyd George plan strictly private conferences at the meeting to be held at Hythe, England, on Sunday, to discuss the measures France purposes to take if Germany does not make the reparation payments demanded by May 1. No one else will be present except one secretary for each premier.

WORK DELAYED ON THE RULES AGAINST MARSH CENTRAL BRIDGE

Despite the fact that the contract between the city of Lowell and the Engineering Service and Construction Co. of Boston for the strengthening and construction of Central bridge was executed three weeks ago, no actual work has been performed on the bridge and people living on the other side of the Merrimack are still being jostled over makeshift crossings of the railway company at either end of the structure.

No definite information as to the cause of the delay can be secured at city hall. When the municipal council was about to approve the contract, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy of the streets and highways department said that the Boston concern was ready to start work the minute the contract was signed. But since then Centralville people have seen no signs of life except a day or two ago when two men with blue prints were seen gazing studiously at the gaping expanse which has been left open since last fall.

However, as far as actual labor is concerned, the company's efforts to date may be enclosed in small zero.

The contract for the strengthening of the bridge is especially interesting in one section. Section 3 says: "Time is the essence of this contract." Evidently, the document has lost its essence. It is to replace the old wooden stringers on the bridge by steel stringers on both roadway and sidewalk and is to install reinforced concrete slab flooring and sidewalks. It is to begin work on the street railway side of the bridge and leave one-half the structure open to travel at all times. At the present time, the street railway company is using only one track and in order to negotiate it, cars have to climb a steep incline and come down with an abruptness that very often sends passengers sprawling all over their seats.

CAUGHT TRYING TO ENTER DEPOT

Drew Guns When Discovered and Lively Exchange of Shots Followed

Bandits Fled in Auto—Became Confused and Left Car and Took to Woods

WOBURN, April 21.—For two hours today eight policemen carried on a running fight with three men who had been discovered in an attempt to break into the Boston & Maine railroad station at North Woburn. The trio fled in an automobile but became confused on the roads and abandoned the car near the Reading-Wilmington line. They took to the woods and the officers followed, exchanging shots with them several times. The men eventually escaped. The automobile was identified as one that had been stolen last night from Mary T. Powers of Chelsea.

Patrolman Arthur Fay discovered the men at the railroad station about daylight. They drew guns and fired as they ran towards the automobile. Officer Fay was joined shortly afterwards by a squad of policemen who had been sent to investigate reports of suspicious men in the neighborhood, and all the officers gave chase.

The men headed for Reading but a sharp turn in the road apparently caused them to believe they had taken the wrong street and that they could go no further, and they took to the woods with the police close behind.

Pastor found in the automobile led to the discovery that a lunch cart at Wilmington had been looted. A break in the Winchester postoffice where a window was smashed, and a quantity of mail stolen, also was reported today, but the police said it was doubtful if the latter break was committed by the same band.

WAS CONSTANTLY LOSING WEIGHT

Mrs. Godin's Experience Will Bring Hope to Suffering
Women

Your weight is an index of your health and a constant decrease is an alarming symptom. It is important to find the cause of the debility and correct it before it is too late.

In very many cases, especially after an acute illness, such as an attack of the grip, it will be found that thin blood is responsible for a condition that does not yield to ordinary treatment.

"After an attack of the grip and pleurisy I was very weak," says Mrs. Orisea Godin of No. 258 Manton ave., Providence, R. I., and I had a severe pain in my side. I was chilly most of the time and so nervous that sleep was impossible. My appetite was poor and I was losing in weight all the time. I took a number of different remedies but until I followed the advice of a friend and tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I found no relief. The first box showed that they were helping me and I was so encouraged that I decided to give this remedy a thorough trial. Soon the pain in my side ceased, my appetite returned and I felt very much stronger. I found that my nerves were steadier and I was sleeping better and awaking rested. I think that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a very reliable remedy for building up the blood and nervous system and can gladly recommend them for that purpose."

Build up your health and strength with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and see how the headaches and backaches are banished. New strength and vigor stronger nerves, renewed color in cheeks and lips come to the woman who gives this tonic a thorough trial.

Nothing more is needed except sunlight, good air, proper food and rest. If you do not know exactly what rules to follow in these matters write today to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, price 25 cents a box or they will be sent postpaid on receipt of price—Adv.

April 2, while plowing near the foot of Brush's mountain his plow unearthed a peculiar-looking object. Investigation revealed it to be a small metal pot wrapped in buckskin containing gold and silver coins valued at $14,903. The latest date on any of the coins was 1523.

IRISH RELIEF DRIVE

Ward Canvass Authorized—
Headquarters Opened—
Other Plans Outlined

Further progress in the local campaign to raise $45,000 for Irish relief was reported at a meeting of the general committee in charge of the drive in Elks hall last evening. Encouraging reports from various committees were received and the "flying squadron" which was appointed to canvass the downtown sections announced that a number of liberal contributions had been received. Among these was one of $100 from the Gagnon store.

Chairman James O'Sullivan presided and there was a large attendance. He spoke of the necessity of immediate relief for the suffering people of Ireland and said that the work in which the committee was engaged was most urgent.

It was announced that the following ward captains had been named: Ward 2, Thomas Tighe; ward 4, J. Joseph McKee; ward 5, John Brady, Jr.; ward 6, Peter McKenna and Leo Beaulieu; ward 7, John J. Flannery; ward 8, Rev. Fr. Galligan; ward 9, Thomas J. Clark.

Major Daly will conduct a sale of white cross banners to automobileists on April 24 for the benefit of the drive.

Plans for the week's carnival to be held next week at the Casino are progressing rapidly and indications point to a most successful affair. The attractions will include midway features, folk dancing and cabaret singing.

A committee consisting of Frank P. McElroy, James O'Sullivan and Stephen Flynn was appointed to take charge of the advertising.

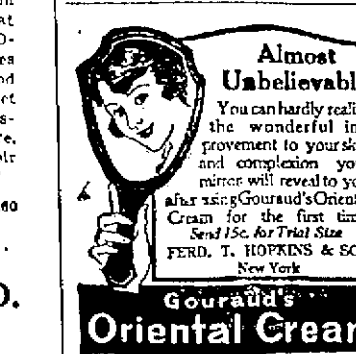

It was announced that the general committee had established headquarters at the corner of Dutton and Merrimack streets and they would be open daily until the end of the drive.

Announcement was made that several organizations are raising funds for the drive, one intending to donate $1000, while others will give lesser sums. The Irish National Foresters are to conduct an athletic field day and give the entire proceeds to the fund. Manager Schaeke, of the Opera House announced that 50 per cent of the proceeds of the performance on Monday, April 25, afternoon and evening, will be donated to the fund. The special committee appointed to secure Rev. Fr. O'Connor of Cork, now in Boston, to deliver his stereopticon lecture here, reported having engaged him for a lecture at the Opera House May 8.

The committee saw the pictures and interviewed Fr. O'Connor and report the views superb and the man himself an eloquent speaker and an ardent supporter of the cause. His lecture is endorsed by the officers of the Irish republic and is up to date in every particular. On behalf of the committee, Chairman O'Sullivan voiced the gratitude of the members to the Lowell lodge of Elks for the free use of their hall.

To Test Right to Take Liquor

BALTIMORE, April 21.—A bill of complaint to test the right of an owner to gain possession of liquor which was bought before the Volstead act went into effect and which is now in a bonded warehouse, has been filed in the federal court here. The complainant is William H. Bryan of Baltimore county, who is anxious to obtain a barrel of whiskey from a distillery, purchased by him on Oct. 2, 1919, during the war-time prohibition.

Greek Financial Commission Protests

ATHENS, April 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Protests against the issuance of 500,000,000 drachmas in paper money by the Greek National bank are being framed for presentation to the Hellenic government by the international financial commission, which exercises control of the public debt of Greece. The commission, it is understood, holds that such action by the bank is in violation of the law of 1898, which vests in the commission the authority to limit circulation of paper money and the duty of protecting the holders of Greek bonds.

IS THIS IMMODESTY?

Now what's wrong with that dress? Mrs. Herman Hohmann of Cincinnati, shown here with her daughter, Helen, aged 11, would like to know. Helen was one of several little girls sent home from school by their teacher because their knees were bare! This is the dress Helen wore. Do you think it's immodest?

COTTON MILLS PROBLEM

New Depreciation Ruling Will Solve Important Tax Assessment Question

NEW YORK, April 21.—Discussion of an important ruling on depreciation submitted recently by the committee on appeals and review, as concerns corporation income tax assessments, is the purpose of a letter being sent out by Stuart W. Cramer, president of the National Council of American Cotton Manufacturers.

The ruling in question deals directly with the practice of revenue field agents of computing depreciation back to the organization of a company, in this discussion a cotton mill, on a flat rate, and then reducing invested capital by the amount by which the result so reached exceeds the depreciation reserve set up on the books.

In its ruling, the committee holds that there is no warrant for thus reducing earned surplus because of alleged failure to charge off sufficient depreciation in the past, unless the depreciable assets of the corporation are valued on its books at the beginning of the taxable year at an amount in excess of their actual value at that time.

President Cramer states that this practice inevitably resulted in an excessive and unfair reduction of invested capital.

His letter, which includes the text of the ruling, follows: "Gentlemen: In our letter of January 1, mention was made that an early ruling on depreciation was expected which would be substantially in accord with my remarks at the Richmond convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association on the subject.

"It is gratifying to state that the acting commissioner of internal revenue has just accepted for the guidance of the income tax unit a recommendation of the committee on appeals and review covering this important matter which will be of great interest to most of our members.

"In answer to a request for advice relative to a practice which has become very common among field agents the committee states that in its judgment there is no warrant for reducing earned surplus because of alleged failure to charge off sufficient depreciation in the past unless the depreciable assets of the corporation are valued on its books at the beginning of the taxable year at an amount in excess of their actual value at that time, and that this is particularly true

MERCHANT SAYS IT'S SIMPLY WONDERFUL

Had to Live On Milk and Bread Before He Got Tanlac—Gains 18 Pounds and Eats Anything Now

"Before I got Tanlac I was so run down, weak and nervous I had to quit driving my car; but now I can drive in the thickest of traffic without the least uneasiness, for my hand is as steady on the wheel as if it had grown there," was the statement made by James T. McKeehan, well known merchant of Middleboro, Mass., recently. Mr. McKeehan has been in business at Middleboro for 11 years, is prominent in fraternal order circles, and has scores of friends throughout the state.

"I suffered from a general run down condition. I felt tired all the time, seemed to have no energy, and it was an effort to get up from my chair or move about in any way. My stomach was so disordered I could scarcely eat anything, and at times even the smell of food would make me sick, and I just had to live on a little milk and bread. I couldn't sleep any to speak of, and was so nervous and restless many nights I just could not stay in bed. Even the sound of an automobile horn would set my nerves on edge, and I lost 15 pounds in weight and was so thin I looked hardly more than a frame.

"Well, the difference Tanlac has made in my condition certainly is remarkable. I've gained 18 pounds in weight, and my appetite is so good three meals are not enough for me, and I sometimes eat something between meals. I can eat a heavy meal just before going to bed and then sleep like a log all night. In fact, I never felt better in my life, and I owe my good health to Tanlac. I'm always telling my friends about it, for I think it's the greatest medicine in the world."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Green's Drug Store under the direction of a special Tanlac representative, by Wright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass.; Snow's Pharmacy, Concord, Mass., and by the leading druggist in every town. Adv.

HOW THE PHOTOGRAPHER SOFTENS PORTRAIT

A certain "fuzzy" effect in motion pictures bears the name of the great motion picture producer who was the first to use it.

Most folks supposed that the whole thing was accomplished with a camera slightly out of focus. That is not the case, although the real method is simple and curiously distorted.

The new system is called "diffused focus." The camera is equipped with a lens made of two lenses.

In the diffused focus lenses, the two lenses making up the system have slightly different focal lengths. One, say, throws a sharp focus at two inches and the other at three and three-tenths inches. Then, when the film is exposed there are two images, each a little different from the other, though each is sharp alone.

The blending of these two large images gives the artistic "fuzzy" effect so pleasing to most movie patrons and quite the thing among society portrait photographers.

never has been and never will be valid and binding.

The memories of Patriots day have been kept sufficiently to make the utterances of Lloyd George agreeable reading matter for a place in an American newspaper.

The American is seeking to stir up strife and animosity between his own government and the British government; but at the same time, he is trying to have any attitude of the British government supported by the distortion of historical truth.

LITTLE VISITS WITH FEATHERED FRIENDS

BY MARY SEAMAN

If you want some real fun during the winter months, get a small piece of suet and fasten it to a tree, within plain view of a window through which you can keep watch. You will have many bird guests, but of all of them you will find no other so busy, so mysterious, so industrious about what concerns you, as the brown creeper. He is a diligent searcher of the trees for the eggs and bugs on which he lives.

You will know him the first time he arrives at your suet feast, for he is brown and white, but so marked that on some trees he scarcely can be detected. His tail feathers are stiffened and pointed, so that they aid him in clinging while he hunts his food. He begins at the base of one rough-barked tree and goes on it thoroughly, usually proceeding upward, though not always. When he is quite satisfied that he has done a good job, he sits silently to another tree and begins there as he did on the first.

I have noticed that the brown creeper is astonishingly fearless, and by being quiet I have crept very close to him. In this way only will you be able to appreciate fully the beautiful markings on back and wings, and once having seen these you will place him among your beautiful bird friends.

He loves suet very well, as that is animal food; and he is an insect eater; but the bluejays steal suet so readily that I have resorted to the expedient of rendering the suet and pouring it while hot over rough bark, and then tacking or tying this to the tree. If Mr. Jay gets any, he must work hard to do so and is prevented from carrying it away in chunks.

The brown creeper is said to have a beautiful song, but I must confess that I have never heard it. Only those fortunate enough to visit him during the nesting season in the far north have that privilege.

A hymn book in English and Eskimo has been prepared for use in Alaska.

SUPT. MOLLOY COUNTERS LLOYD GEORGE

Editor of The Sun:

I have no desire to add anything to the discussion of the Irish question at this time, beyond the statement that the present status furnishes one of the saddest and most melancholy situations in history.

I do, however, bitterly resent the recent utterances of Lloyd George given broadcast to the public, in which he seeks to draw a parallel between the righteous aspirations of a people to break from an alliance which was not of their own seeking, and the selfish representations of the seceding states of America of a union into which they had entered entirely of their own free will and for their own profit and advantage.

I have too great a regard for the fact and traditions connected with our Glorious Union, and I am too deeply interested in American history and civics to be of the number of those who can read such impudent perversions of historical truth with complacency and composure. I have too reverent a regard for the immeasurable sacrifices which were made to found this union of sovereign states and later, to defend it to read with indignation the false and indefensible utterances of Lloyd George.

Is he franchising another Alabama to prey upon America? Is he making an appeal for the moral support of those who may still have a love for the lost cause?

Then, I hope another Ku Klux Klan will emerge from out the great body of patriotic American public opinion, to repeat the historic rebuff given to the traitor with the subsequent Geneva award.

The states of this union entered voluntarily and without duress into it, and that union is indissoluble, and it should be.

The people of Ireland never sought the union in which they today find themselves; Ireland is in the position of a wife in name only, who has entered the marriage state under duress, or as the result of fraud and corruption, and such a marriage is not now.

ELECT LOWELL MAN AS
C. E. UNION HEAD

At a meeting of the Middlesex County Christian Endeavor union in Somerville Tuesday, A. Edwin Wells of this city, president of the Lowell Christian Endeavor union, was elected president of the organization. There were 1600 persons present at the convention, of whom 175 were from Lowell.

Other Lowell people elected to offices in the county union were: Miss Carrie Stewart, immediate superintendent of the Lowell union, secretary; Frank J. Spencer, Lowell alumni superintendent, auditor.

The theme of the convention was "Progressive—Constructive—Consecrated."

Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D., founder of the Christian Endeavor movement, gave an address on "Progressive Endeavor," in which he told of his extensive travels and of the work that is being done by Christian Endeavorers all over the world. He announced that next Sunday President Harding is to be taken into the Christian Endeavor Alumni fellowship.

"Constructive Christian Endeavor" was the subject of an address by Rev. Frank L. Frost, field secretary of the Massachusetts union. A welcome was extended to the visiting delegates by Dr. Richard L. Rice, president of the Somerville board of aldermen. Rev. Norman L. MacQueen of the Clarendon Hill Baptist church, and Rev. F. Theodore Conlan, president of the Somerville Christian Endeavor union, also spoke words of greeting. A response was made by Russell J. Blair, retiring president of the county union.

In addition to those already mentioned the following officers were elected: First vice president, Mrs. Alice V. Champion; second vice president, Ernest Sands; treasurer, Clarence S. Farnum.

There was a debate on the subject, "Resolved, that Sunday amusements should be prohibited," in which a number of the delegates took part.

At the evening session of the convention the new president was presented with a gavel and the delegates rose and gave Mr. Wells an ovation of applause. Another feature of the evening session was an address on "Consecrated Endeavor" by Rev. Arthur Rudman of the Young Men's Christian Association college in Springfield.

Arthur R. Thompson, second vice president of the Lowell union, was elected head of the Lowell convention committee.

Gland Treatment Helps Ex-Fighter To Hold His Job

Worcester Man's Strength
So Low Was Going to Give Up Work

Gland Pills Quickly Restore
His Strength and Health

Royal G. Harris, who fought in many of the major engagements in the World War, and who is a well known member of the American Legion, says that he would have been out of a job today, had it not been for the new animal gland treatment as embodied in Glandex Compound.

Harris, who lives at 1 Salem street, is employed as a watchman in a Waldo street building. Working 13 hours a night, seven nights a week, and keeping up 60 lbs. of steam in a boiler down in a pit is no easy job, and it was not long before it began to tell on the ex-fighter.

"Three months ago," said Harris, when interviewed, "I caught a bad cold which I couldn't seem to get rid of. It was a hacking cough, and gradually it began to get the best of me. It seemed to take all my strength from me, and before I knew it I was in a bad, run-down condition. My stomach went back on me and soon I had chronic indigestion.

"I lost all my ambition and vitality. Everything seemed to go wrong, and life sure did look pretty empty. I got weaker and weaker—why sometimes I hardly had strength enough to drag myself up out of the boiler room after work. In one week I lost 7 pounds.

"Finally I got so bad I was on the point of throwing up my job. Then I heard about this Glandex Compound, the new animal gland tonic, and how it was doing great things everywhere, so I decided to try it. Maybe I'm not glad I did! Why, from the very first, I could feel a big improvement in me. It just took right hold of me and built me up. I'm on my third bottle now, and my cough has left me, my indigestion has disappeared, my strength has increased wonderfully, and I don't seem to mind hard work at all now. Glandex certainly is a great tonic, especially when it comes to building up people. It certainly did me a world of good, and I never get tired of recommending it to people."

From everywhere come equally remarkable reports of how Glandex Compound is helping people to regain health and strength. Where other tonics and medicines have failed, Glandex brings about almost unbelievable results, especially in the treatment of loss of strength, nervousness, sleeplessness, poor blood, thinness, low vitality, poor appetite, premature old age and general "run-down" conditions.

Feeds Run-Down Glands. The reason for these remarkable results, it appears, is that Glandex Compound builds up run-down glands, which scientists have found to be the cause of most run-down conditions. Our glands, we are told, supply a mysterious secretion, called hormones, which is vitally necessary to the building up of the billions of muscle, brain and nerve cells in our bodies. Thus, when our glands become run-down, the supply of hormones slows down, and our bodies suffer as a result. Glandex helps build up run-down glands by feeding them with gland extracts taken from the glands of healthy sheep and cattle. It works on practically the same principle, as the famous monkey gland treatment, except that an operation is unnecessary.

If you are weak, thin, run-down, nervous, anemic, or if you are suffering from loss of vitality or premature old age it is recommended that you try Glandex Compound, which in addition to containing genuine gland extracts from sheep and cattle contains iron and other health-builders as well. It is guaranteed to bring entirely satisfactory results after a short treatment of money refunded. For sale by good druggists everywhere.—Adv.

COTTON MEN MEET

Speaker Opposes Definitely Stated National Labor Policy.

BOSTON, April 21.—A definitely stated national labor policy was opposed as inimical to industrial progress by W. R. Bassett of New York before the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers at their convention today. The history of governmental interference in labor has shown successes when decisions were in favor of the workman, he said, and failures when the verdicts were for the employers.

"One hears a great deal about the iron heel of capitalistic despotism squeezing blood profit out of the poor down-trodden worker," the speaker said, adding that he had "yet to discover a company that had become really prosperous when operated on the lemon-squeezer principle."

Discussing the trades union question, Mr. Bassett asserted that although the labor bodies had performed a valuable service in curbing unscrupulous employers, they had not permanently advanced wages nor bettered working conditions. The pay increases and betterment of conditions were created and regulated by economic forces, he added.

Employee representation in management was described by R. L. Wilson of East Pittsburgh, Pa. "Industry depends upon co-operation based on the acceptance by employers and employees of some practicable application of the principle that capital and labor are interdependent," he said.

"The workman certainly has a right to have something to say in regard to his working conditions, his conduct in the shop, his relations to his employers and his fellow employees. It is necessary and right that his desires in this respect be recognized."

A movement to lighten the burden of the industrial housing problem for mill owners was advocated by Leslie M. Allen of Springfield.

With the exception of the mining industry, he said, there was no industry that housed in its own buildings, so large a proportion of employees as did the textile manufacturers.

The average mill town he described as an unattractive place. "The houses are, as a rule, monotonous and depressing. The ownership by mills of the houses rented at figures that are too low to be profitable is also detrimental to others. The only house that can possibly compete with company houses is of the cheapest and meanest type."

Two alternatives lay before the company which wished to end its housing perplexities, he said. One was to raise rents to a profitable basis; the other to sell and if the cost price could not be obtained, to accept less, as it would be cheaper in the end.

CONCERT FOR THE IRISH RELIEF FUND

A concert and dance with the entire proceeds going to the Irish relief fund will be conducted in Associate hall this evening under the auspices of the Broadway Social and Athletic association. This organization which has gained considerable prominence for its many charitable activities in the past has taken this means of "doing its bit" for the cause, and has made all plans and will pay all expenses in connection with the undertaking. In addition to a well arranged dancing program the officers have planned a series of novelty numbers which are expected to prove very enjoyable. Cabaret features will be given by two of Lowell's most popular young vocalists, Dave Boyle and Eddie Deane. A dancing contest by James O'Garra and Mrs. Jennie Conway will be another feature. Special dancing numbers will also be given by four of Mrs. Conway's pupils, namely Josephine Coyle, Mary Flanagan, Agnes Cotter and Little Mae Conway.

NOMINATIONS MADE BY PRES. HARDING TODAY

WASHINGTON, April 21.—David P. Blair of Winston-Salem, N. C., was nominated today by President Harding to be commissioner of internal revenue.

Secretary Mellon announced today that no consideration had been given as yet to the appointment of a prohibition commissioner, that matter remaining as it was on March 4.

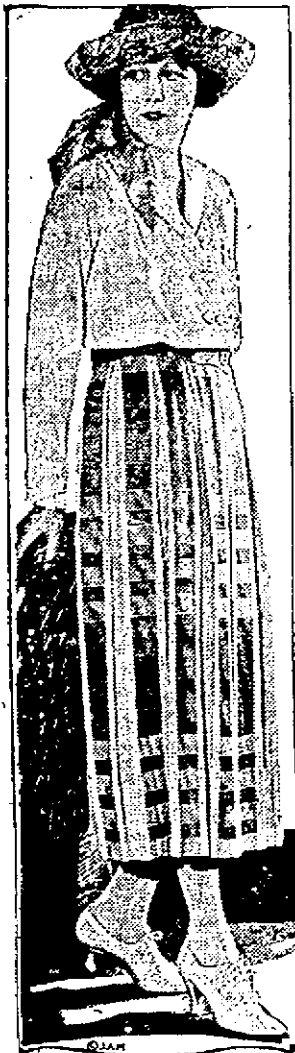

Possible transfer of the prohibition unit from the treasury to the department of justice, Mr. Mellon said, would not necessarily alter plans for appointment of a new prohibition commissioner when the question was considered. Such a transfer was being considered, he said, as a part of departmental reorganization plans being worked out by the administration.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Clausius H. Huston of Tennessee was nominated today by President Harding to be assistant secretary of commerce.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Charles F. Marvin was nominated today by President Harding to be chief of the weather bureau.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Arthur F. Odlin of Florida was nominated today by President Harding to be United States judge for the district of Porto Rico.

EXCEEDING AUTHORITY

Ex-Sen. Cavanaugh Serves Notice on Committee Investigating Legislatures

BOSTON, April 21.—Former Senator James P. Cavanaugh of Everett served notice today on the special legislative committee investigating the conduct of members of the legislatures of 1918 and 1919 in relation to dealings in street railway stock, that in his opinion, the committee was exceeding the scope of its authority and that he would hold each member personally responsible. Mr. Cavanaugh's statement followed the decision of the committee to overrule his objections as a private citizen to having details of his stock market transactions read publicly into the records.

"You have no right to investigate," Mr. Cavanaugh asserted from the witness stand. "The committee can smell, can investigate whether Columbus discovered America, but one legislature cannot investigate another. The 1915 legislature has prorogued and most of its members have gone into private life. Your power comes in making a noise in digging up facts for the delectation of the public. Why waste the state money when you have no authority?"

After repeated challenges and objections from Mr. Cavanaugh, the committee went into conference with counsel and later announced that the objections were overruled.

Black Bass

ANGLES TO ANGLING

Cast Your Bait Deep for Battling Bass

By MORRIS ACKERMAN
America's Foremost Angler

The black bass is the game fish of the masses.

It is the only fighting fish that thrives in our centres of population.

You find him in the park lakes of great cities, reservoirs, ponds, far and near, big and little.

All fair waters look alike to this wonderful fish of the people.

For this reason bass fishing has more followers than that of any, or possibly all other, game fish combined.

Excepting where seasons are closed by law during the spring, the black bass is hard hunted during the whole of a year's 12 months.

In early spring fishing for this splendid fellow we often find him "hung up with a cold" from the winter-chilled waters.

It is then he must be "hand fed"; we must put within reach of that discriminating nose the live minnow, the crawfish or the lovely angle worm.

He is not looking for painted plugs or foolish feathers. He is only interested in a square meal at close range.

His sky line is the surface of the water and he is in no mood for high flying. For this reason it is far better to send down weighted minnow, "craw" or worm.

As the early bird gets the worm, likewise does the angler, with lure waiting at peep 'n' day, have the bulge on the bass.

Bass fishing will make you forget your worries. Dig up some tackle, a can of worms or a bucket of "minnies" and get rid of fagging appetites and sleepless nights.

tions from Mr. Cavanaugh, the committee went into conference with counsel and later announced that the objections were overruled.

Senator Cavanaugh entered his protest when Edwin I. Pride, an auditor who has testified regarding notes found in the records of the Fidelity Trust Co., was asked by the committee for information regarding notes given by Edward D. Hassan, an office associate of Mr. Cavanaugh.

In the editorial columns, the Review expresses the hope that provision will be made in the new high school building for a library of greater size than the present collection of books.

At recess tomorrow a dance will be held in the school hall for the benefit of the Review.

Textile Workers Union Enjoined

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 21.—A formal decree was entered today by Presiding Justice Tanner of the superior court enjoining the Amalgamated Textile Workers of America local of Burrillville from unlawful interference with the business of the Stillwater worsted mills at Harrisville, where a strike was called early in March. ### JACK CUDAHY ENDS LIFE

Kansas City Man Pulled Shotgun Trigger With His Toes

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—John P. (Jack) Cudahy, member of the Kansas City family of packers, was found dead yesterday in his residence in the Hollywood section of Los Angeles. The police said Cudahy apparently had killed himself by placing the muzzle of a shotgun in his mouth and pulling the trigger with his toes.

There was some delay in establishing his identity, owing to the effect of the gunshot wound.

The officers and servants at the residence finally made the definite announcement that the dead man was the well known Jack Cudahy, and that he had killed himself.

He was 43 years old, and his wife and children had lived in Pasadena and Los Angeles for several years.

His act followed his falling to negotiate a $10,000 loan with a Chicago bank. Detective Sergeant McMahon said last night.

McMahon said Mrs. Cudahy, the widow, told him her husband received a letter Tuesday from an officer of the bank informing him the loan could not be carried unless vouched for by another member of the Cudahy family. Yesterday according to McMahon, Cudahy received a telegram from the relative in question declining to vouch for the loan.

The Woman's Literary union and the Mary Brown home will share equally with three individual beneficiaries in the division of the residue of the estate after the death of Mr. Frye. The gift at Coburn Classical institute at Waterville, which he attended, is for the erection of the Frye dormitory. The $5000 for Colby is to be devoted to a scholarship to the most worthy student entering that college from Coburn, who is making his way through college.

BITTER ATTACK ON GOMPERS

Cong. Underhill Charges
Leaders With Sedition—
Drop Gompers, He Says

Declares A. F. of L. Head
Was Only Man Who Had
Key to White House

NEW YORK, April 21.—Samuel Gompers was described as the only man who had a key to the White House, and the American Federation of Labor as more powerful than the government itself during the world war, by Congressman Charles T. Underhill, of Massachusetts, in the course of an address yesterday afternoon at the 23d annual convention of the National Metal Trades Association at the Hotel Astor. His remarks were heartily applauded at intervals by members of the association, who compose one of the strongest forces opposed to the closed shops.

At the beginning of his address, Mr. Underhill said he wished to make a distinction between organized labor and labor, and to make a further distinction between organized labor and labor leaders. He had just been informed that newspapermen had been admitted to the meeting which ordinarily would have been a closed one. Turning to the members of the press, he said he did not care a snap of his fingers how much he was quoted.

"There is just as much heresy," he continued, "or lack of patriotism or sedition in claiming that a man who criticized the policy of President Wilson was not patriotic as in saying that a man who criticizes Sam Gompers and his gang is not friendly to labor."

Attacks Labor During War

"When I first entered political life I always saw labor the benefit of the doubt until the time that we entered the war, but the attitude of union labor and its leaders was so seditious, so disgraceful and disloyal from that time on, that today I am from Missouri and they have got to show me."

"It has been through a lack of courage on the part of our law-makers, and of knowledge on the part of our leaders that they laid our country open to the rule of an autocrat and demagogue more unprincipled than any potentate in Europe. Had the war lasted a little longer we might have been worse off than under Wilhelm II. and his Potsdam gang for we might have had the rule of Sara Gompers and his gang."

"Poster, Morrison, Duncan and Wolf were boring from within during the war, seeking to take away from our boys in France their birthright to labor and to live."

He then attacked the Federation of Labor and its leaders because he said they had spoken no word about winning the war at the time of the Buffalo convention. He said that the chief concern of that meeting of the Federation of Labor had been to strengthen itself against the return of the former service men from France at the conclusion of the war, and that they would be seeking millions of jobs. It had been the desire of the American Federation of Labor, he said, to make these veterans submit to its power.

Tried to Enter Mining

He then cited the case of his son who had given up his training for a certain profession to enlist in the services of his country. On returning from France after having lost time from his studies that never could be regained, this son decided to enter the mining field and he desired to start from the ground and learn the business. Consequently, he went down to West Virginia and entered a mine with a pick and shovel.

"The first requisite was that he must join the union," said Congressman Underhill.

"Then," he said, "that one of the proofs that these boys were being deprived of their right to work by Gompers and his gang of highlanders?"

He charged that further evidence of the seditious attitude of union labor

Why Dread Old Age?

It don't make much difference how old you are if you only keep in good health and are active. Many people appear older at 50 than others do at 70, to keep looking young you have got to enjoy good health, and do as little worrying as possible. Backache, swollen joints and legs, disturbed sleep by being compelled to arise one or more times during the night are sure symptoms of kidney trouble, and should have immediate attention to avoid serious consequences. SEVEN BARKS, nature's remedy of roots and herbs, is one of the best remedies to take not only for affected kidneys, but for liver, stomach and heart troubles.

Middle-aged people realize that they cannot perform their work or move around as fast as formerly. The internal organs feel the effect of age and do not perform their work properly. The heart palpitates on the slightest exertion and the back aches after a day's work. The muscles and flesh get flabby, and the blood thinner than formerly. It is then you need a good tonic and bowel regulator—you cannot find a more reliable and efficient remedy for these conditions than SEVEN BARKS.

If you want to enjoy life, recover some of your youthful vigor and have the glow of health, get SEVEN BARKS of your druggist. Do not accept a substitute.—Adv.

REDUCE THOSE DANGEROUS SWOLLEN VEINS

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only cures varicose veins and hemorrhoids but also reduces, softens, enlarged glands and veins.

Take any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have a price refund. It is not only for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Generous sample on receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. Your druggist or Fred Howard and supply you.—Adv.

was furnished by the 6000 strikes that had been called up to the time of the armistice in industries that were necessary to win the war. He berated the federation because these strikes had been permitted to occur. His sentence was continued by a member of the association, who added, "Backed up by Wilson."

"That's right," continued Mr. Underhill. "I'm coming to that later."

"During the world war," he said, "labor leaders did everything in their power in order to substantiate their own power. But since the war they have been crying baby and saying that you manufacturers and other employers are debasing yourselves for the purpose of destroying the unions."

The honest workmen, according to Congressman Underhill, must go down to the members of their unions and wrest control of the organization from their present leaders or else turn in their union cards.

"It has been said in Washington," he said further, "that Gompers was the only man in Washington who had a key to the White House. You all know that during the war Sam Gompers has become a bigger man than the president of the United States, and that the A. F. of L. was more powerful than the government of the United States."

GOOD FRIDAY OBSERVANCE

The observance of Good Friday for the members of the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox church will take place Friday evening, April 23, when the usual procession will be held. According to present arrangements there will be a service at the church at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock the procession, headed by a brass band and the clergy will leave the church and march through the principal streets of the local colony. Upon returning to the church another service will be held. The officiating deacons will be Rev. Nestor Soultides and Rev. Nicholas Menides.

WORLD CHAMP'S RETURN

CLEVELAND, April 21.—Interest in the home-coming today of the Cleveland Indians for the first time since they won the world's baseball championship centers in Riggs Stephenson, star second baseman, who is making his initial appearance before the home fans. He is leading the regulars at bat with 14 hits out of 24 times up and his hitting has been sensational.

LEWIS BEATS SAMSON

BOSTON, April 21.—Champion Ed. Lewis after letting Jack Orlando Samson lift himself, but trying to throw him, took a live hand in the game himself.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

"Godless Men," a Reginald Barker production with an all-star cast, telling a story in which men meet their souls face to face and yet urge themselves on to acts of horror, is the feature attraction of the Merrimack Square theatre for the week-end. "Godless Men" is an entirely different story of the high seas. There never has been a production containing the same unexpected happenings and hoisting so absorbing a plot. The other big feature of the current programs, "The Song of a Soul," starring popular Vivian Martin, presents Miss Martin in the most ambitious role of her screen career. She plays the blind heroine of the production, a role called for sincerity and intelligence far beyond the requirements of the average conventional performance. A comedy and the International News round out the bill.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

It is doubtful if there is a woman in Lowell today who will not appreciate the very fine point of Any Home, which Jean Adair & Co. are playing at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week. It is a story of a family disrupted by the house-cleaning period. And it is splendidly played by Miss Adair and her supporting company. Blackie's loss, in a monologue, is nothing if not a scream-maker. His work is really worth while. It is a guaranteed cure for the spring lassitude. The three clowns stage a singing act that has merit and rolls & Royce, the dancers, do a speedy turn. The Donald Sisters are balancers who demonstrate many good things, while the Valentines in a skit, and Commodore Tom, a trained pony complete the bill.

COMING TO THE STRAND

The coming of Elaine Hammerstein in her newest Selznick special feature, "Pleasure Seekers" at The Strand for the first three days of next week will be learned with anticipation of pleasure by the large majority of motion picture patrons of Lowell and vicinity. Miss Hammerstein's last film success, "Daughters of Men," will be well remembered as one of the real superior photoplays of the season, and those who are in a position to judge, proclaim "Pleasure Seekers" even more fascinating. Miss Hammerstein's wonderful ability to reflect sweet, demure simplicity, was never better exemplified than in this offering. Plan to see it during one of the performances and remember also that it runs only three days. The second feature on the bill is one of Jack London's stories, called "The Little Fool," and an all-star cast, headed by Helen Mills is engaged in its interpretation. Anything that London wrote during his varied career, has always been sufficiently interesting to attract more than ordinary attention, and "The Little Fool" is no exception. It is said to have wonderfully tense situations and a gripping story.

OPERA HOUSE

To see Miss Marguerite Fields remember about the Opera House stage in dainty negligee, and Milton Byron skid all over the place in scanty attire, after being stripped of practically all his clothing by a pair of thugs. Is to enjoy some of the best comedy situations ever enacted on the local stock stage. "The Girl in the Limousine" a farce comedy in three acts, is responsible for it, and you'll get a full measure of amusement out of it if you attend one of the remaining performances.

Next week's offering will be "That Girl Patsy," a delightful drama that has been a production containing the same unexpected happenings and hoisting so absorbing a plot. The other big feature of the current programs, "The Song of a Soul," starring popular Vivian Martin, presents Miss Martin in the most ambitious role of her screen career. She plays the blind heroine of the production, a role called for sincerity and intelligence far beyond the requirements of the average conventional performance. A comedy and the International News round out the bill.

THE STRAND

There is only one Pricilla Dean when it comes to playing "lady crooks," and her portrayal of the role of Silky Moll, daughter of the reformed Madden in "Outside the Law," now showing at the Strand, is as clean cut as a cameo. As the cold, calculating girl of the underworld, whose heart is finally touched when the maternal instinct is awakened, she runs the gamut of human emotions. Lon Chaney, one of these in support of the star, is again established as the peer of character actors by his performance of the role of "Black Jack" Silva, the San Francisco gangster. His portrayal of the wolf of the underworld, fearless and unprincipled, is a masterpiece that ranks with his wonderful work in "The Miracle Man."

Clara Kimball Young, appearing in "Mid-Chance" is a production that ranks with the very best of its kind ever shown on the screen. It fairly teems with brilliant and vivid dramatic moments that touch the fibres of the heart and awaken memories in some and sounds warnings to others. It's a recital of real life as we all know it.

RIALTO THEATRE

That popular motion picture pair, Walter Hiers and Harrison Ford, are again to be seen together in "Oh Lady, Lady," the pictureized version of the Bolton and Woodhouse musical comedy triumph in which Reba Daniels is starring. The picture opens at the Rialto theatre this afternoon and it introduces the well known star in a fitting role. The program also carries an English picture, "The Lure of Crooning Waters," a ripping comedy, "Beat It," an episode of "Fighting Fate" and the Fox news. In "Oh Lady, Lady," Hiers has a very amusing role as "Willoughby Finch," a serious minded young man who is frightened to death when his home town sweetheart appears on the scene as he is to be married, apparently prepared to "ramp" him from his chosen bride. The situation is intensified when the simple country girl is changed into a musical comedy star. The whole affair is a mistake, however, and Ford comes to the rescue as the hero of the story. The plot is bristling with complications that cause no end of fun and Reba Daniels reizes the opportunity of making one of the best appearances of her whole life. Don't fail to take in this picture. "The Lure of Crooning Waters" introduces a bunch of English stars and patrons of the Rialto will have an opportunity to judge the quality of their screen appearance and acting.

IRISH PROTESTANTS

TELL OF CONDITIONS

(From the New York World)

Thomas Spring-Rice, first cousin of the former ambassador to America from Great Britain; Lord Montagu, Prof. D. Culverwell, senior dean of Dublin university, and Alec Wilson, a Belfast capitalist, all Protestants, have sent cable messages to the American relief committee for Ireland "protesting against cruel misrepresentations of facts concerning the need of relief and urging the committee to continue its good work. In the message, made public yesterday, Lord Montagu says: "I regret to see doubts thrown on the existence of distress and devastation caused by the recent trouble in Ireland, which your committee seeks to remedy. As a Protestant of the landlord class, having lived all my life on good terms with my Catholic tenants and neighbors, I can testify personally to the burning in this immediate locality of one co-operative creamery, one co-operative shop, one workmen's club and general shops, and the murder of an old-age pensioner."

Mr. Wilson makes his plea more eloquent, contending that Ireland would be in no need of help from America if she were permitted to help herself. "Our case is, had enough these days, in all conscience, without being unduly overstated. Men have been executed for political offenses. They are hanging men and women for the wearing of the green." Once more very many innocent persons have suffered in mind, body and estate without offense given or trial afforded."

Prof. Culverwell, declaring that misrepresentation of the facts concerning Irish distress is cruel under the circumstances, says:

"Understanding that statements have been cable to America that there is no distress in Ireland such as would call for relief by your committee, I desire to say that those statements are not only unfounded but, considering the facts, are cruel. In the conflict between the forces of the crown and those of the Irish republican army there has been widespread damage which has laid waste the economic life of the country."

"I accept as reasonable the estimate of this damage cable to you by Mr. France, and I regard it as of the greatest importance that speedy measures of reconstruction should be taken. Otherwise the present grievous distress will be greatly aggravated in the near future."

Although long chiffon blouses are still worn, shorter ones are becoming more popular?—Adv.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE COMMITTEE

At the meeting of the executive committee in charge of the Salvation Army drive which starts May 9 and continues for one week, in an effort to raise $15,000, Mr. Dudley L. Page was elected chairman. It will be remembered that Mr. Page was chairman of the committee which so successfully conducted last year's campaign when the quota was $20,000 and the sum of $23,000 was raised.

The other officers elected, at this meeting, were: Vice chairman, Dr. E. Studley; secretary, George F. Wells; treasurer, Julian B. Keyes. The committee feels confident that they can raise the $15,000 as the people of Lowell have always recognized the good influence of the Salvation Army in the community and there is no question but what everyone will be glad to render their best efforts in putting this campaign over the top.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail that it cannot penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chemists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store, a tiny bottle containing directions.—Adv.

WHAT OF THE FISHWAY?

Shall we or shall we not have a fishway?

That is a question that for some time past has greatly agitated certain members of the Lowell Fish and Game association.

This body of citizens has interested itself in promoting legitimate sport and among other things, it has been sought the Massachusetts Fish and Game commission to enforce the law that provides for open fishways in the Merrimack river to permit the fish to pass upward in the spawning season.

Originally, the fishing rights in the Merrimack had an important commercial value and were fully protected by the state as the following statute will show:

"Section 3—An act to regulate the catching of salmon, shad and alewives, and to prevent obstruction in the Merrimack river and in other rivers and streams running into the same within this Commonwealth.

"Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that if any person or persons shall erect or obstruct or incurbarance or place obstructions in or across the said Merrimack river or any of the rivers or streams running into the same, or continue such obstructions already erected so as to prevent the free passage of the said fish up and down said river and streams, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay a fine of twenty pounds sterling."

"Acts of 1790, Page 272.

A few years after the passage of that act, the Locks and Canals Company was incorporated and has remained an active body ever since with a special interest in water power, but apparently with little or no regard for the fishing industry of the Merrimack river once so valuable.

When this company built its dams and locks, it was with the special stipulation that fishways would be built to permit the migration of the fish from the sea in the spawning season. Those fishways served the purpose admirably while properly maintained and they were maintained for fully a hundred years after the enactment of the law quoted above. It was in 1895 that the fishway at Lawrence was abandoned, and of course when that was closed, it was useless to maintain one at Lowell. Hence the fishway at Pawtucket Falls was also neglected and finally forgotten, except by those who are particularly interested in the necessity of restoring the fishways and giving the fish a chance to ascend our noble river.

The fishway at Lawrence has been rebuilt, but Lowell has not been successful in its efforts to move the Fish and Game commission to do anything practical. Indeed, most of the members feel that this official body is disposed to treat the project as a joke; but the agitation is not going to be suppressed or sidetracked by the dilatory tactics of the commission. At every meeting of the Fish and Game association there is a new discussion of this fishway business, and it is claimed that the commission in justice to the people should have the fishways restored without delay.

Some of the objectors say that fish cannot live in the river because of contamination from sewage and mill scouplings; but for the people of Lawrence can drink Merrimack river water without any injurious results, we do not see any ground for claiming that it would kill the salmon, the shad and the alewives.

We want to see the fishway at Pawtucket dam, and that realized, we will take care of the fish afterwards. There is a question of popular rights involved that cannot be swept aside by the procrastination of any antipiscatorial commission.

CENTRAL AMERICAN QUARREL

It would seem that we are soon to have triple and possibly other alliances of various kinds on our own continent, some of them having a bellicose spirit inversely proportional to their size. The United States is bound by treaty obligations to safeguard the integrity of Panama, Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala are pledged to support Costa Rica in her contention against Panama, so that we are likely to be in grips with another bunch of "Central powers."

It is time that the American states from Canada to Patagonia come to an understanding for their common protection. While we are pledged to maintain the Monroe Doctrine in all its bearings, some of the South American countries are opposed to any overlordship by Uncle Sam. To make the Monroe Doctrine thoroughly effective, it must be endorsed, approved, adopted and defended by all the independent states on the continent and enforced by their common consent and united action.

Thus far it seems that the United States stands alone on this continent for the Monroe Doctrine while the very wars that owe their safety and very existence to its enforcement, are shortsighted enough to question the motives of the United States and even to attribute to our government a desire for territorial aggrandizement. This Central American squabble between Panama and Costa Rica serves to accentuate the delay of the position we have assumed as the guardian, the police officer and the sheriff for the various smaller states south of us on this continent. Mexico seems to be actively opposed to our assumption of this power and in emergency would call in the aid of foreign nations to which we are opposed. That is a dangerous policy for Mexico to pursue and one that might easily prove her undoing.

As for the smaller powers involved in the scrap with Panama, they resent the manner in which the United States raised up the new republic. Our delay in settling the Colombian claim in compensation has not helped to improve their feeling towards us. Thus easily may we be embroiled in the insignificant yet far-reaching quarrels of small nations in Central and South America.

THE RAILROAD PROBE

For some time past there has been continual controversy between the railroad executives and the railroad unions relative to the scale of wages and working conditions. The railroad managers charge that the road's were being imposed upon by the piling up of excessive charges under the pretense of overtime work and other provisions in the contracts coming down from the war period. To most of these the labor men had little, if anything, to say. It may have been true that the working conditions during the war seemed upon a rigid investigation of the railroads when carried into the time of peace.

On the other hand the railroad brotherhoods have charged the railroads with gross mismanagement and inefficiency. It is believed that the men who make these charges will be able to offer reasonable evidence to support them.

At such a juncture it is opportune that the United States senate order a rigid investigation of the railroads in order to ascertain the cost of operation and whether the mismanagement is as general as has been charged; whether, on the other hand, they have been imposed by the brotherhoods and whether from the information thus obtained a more economic system of operation can be enforced and one that will mean also the saving of the railroads. It will probably mean greater efficiency, better service and lower prices all round.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES ARMED

Postoffice employees will be armed with "sawed off" rifles and ready for gun men and burglars when they call. That is as it should be. Some of the most notable robberies of recent years have been those of mail trains where the clerks were entirely defenseless when told to throw up their hands. Now the clerks will be expected to use their guns in defending the government's property and to take the risks of being shot rather than yield tamely to the command of the gunman to deliver the bundle.

Banks are also arming their officials and in some institutions men may be hired for no other purpose than to remain on deck ready for any emergency.

Some banks have arranged for a discharge of shrapnel from the safe or the safety vaults if the mechanism in either case be disturbed.

It appears, therefore, that the gunman is not likely to get away with big holdups and robberies so easily as in the past. Train or express robberies will be attended with risk to the gunman who may be dropped when or where they least expect it.

Municipalities and large corporations have stopped the practice of allowing unprotected boys to carry payrolls through the public streets. Most of them have provided an armed escort, something that should have been done in the first place, but which the prevalence of robberies makes imperative.

PLACING THE BLAME

The Industrial Commission in its report to President Harding has charged that retail price associations that keep one another informed of their respective price schedules, operate to prevent the natural and logical reductions in prices to the consumers. The commission asserts that the cost of commodities to the consumer has not been reduced in the proportion that might be expected from the decline in the price of agricultural and other raw materials. The commission finds that the tendency to lower prices of many commodities is retarded at the retailing stage and thus all interests concerned are injured, as relief in this respect would be reflected in greater production, reduction of unemployment and, therefore, greater ability on the part of the people to buy. This is one of the phases of the present situation that must be overcome before a restoration of business activity can be assured. The charge thus put forward by the Industrial Commission applies to some retailers; but not to all. The fair-minded and progressive are willing to take the losses incident to the period of deflation, confident that the policy of small profits, or even no profits for a brief period, and quick sales will greatly help to improve industrial conditions generally.

General Gomez, the defeated candidate for president of Mexico, has decided to accept the result. Mr. Zayas will be president. Gomez is too good a soldier to spoil the result of the past triumph by refusing to accept the will of the majority. Failure to do this is the bane of Mexico for there, no matter who is elected, some disgruntled leader is always ready to plot treason.

A Quincey person has contributed $5 to the state treasurer's campaign fund. It is passing strange that the fund to congressmen, that first sinking in this way, always has placed upon it such slight monetary value.

It would be interesting to know whether the chamber of commerce had a resolution ordinance in the municipal council table or in the waste basket.

Since the payment of $15,000,000 to Colombia will only cost each of us about two bits apiece we can probably stand it without feeling seriously impoverished.

Harding says that Uncle Sam will fight all the world to protect the Monroe Doctrine. So say we all of us.

Passports for another world will soon begin to be issued with the visa "Beyond his depth; could not swim."

Another Dog Yarn

Here is another story which the collector of true dog yarns might like to add to his list. A gentleman had a dog whose eyes were remarkably different in size. Whenever a stranger stood at the house the dog played a trick on him. He would first get fed at one side of the table and then go around the table to his other side and pretend to be another dog.

One on Mr. Bully

Mr. Bully was cross-examining a down-trodden witness.

"Now, sir," he thundered, "you have stated under oath that this man had the appearance of a gentleman! Please tell the jury how a gentleman looks—in your estimation?"

"Well, your honor, a gentleman looks like—er—er—er—stammered the poor confused witness.

"With unmerciful sarcasm the counsel plumed to the attack again.

"I don't want any of your 'ers,' and remember you are on oath! Can you see anybody in the court who looks like a gentleman?"

"The witness's eyes for the first time showed anger, and he blared it out.

"Stand out of the way and then perhaps I can. You're not transparent!"

Billie He's Eighteen

Barber, who is doomed to be a life-long bookkeeper, hands me a clipping and says, "Billie, you always seem to be trying for something. The likesome voice of a book business life falls upon you. This ad gives you a shot at a $250 prize for a hairnet."

It was from a concern that has started a new tooth paste and they offered a prize of 250 berries for a snap-ping hairnet that should ought to make a guy who hates tooth paste bust into the nearest drug store and demand a case of hairnets. I dashed off the ensuing emanation out of a clear sky: When your teeth look kind of dowdy, dog-gone it, you want to make 'em shine, dog-gone it.

Why, slap a silver quarter across the drug store counter and just say to the salesman in charge, "Doggett."

Pretty jazzy, what? Well, I sent it in on the firm's stationery and what with important conferences with the elevators and the fireman of the building I forgot all about it. This afternoon the buzzer, which means I am a part of the boss's life, rang and I went in to see what he wanted.

"Bill," he says, "are you aware what this firm sells?"

"Yes, sir," I answers, "toilet goods and all sorts."

"Well, are you writing masterpieces of poetry for the bird concerns then?" he growled. "A bird by the name of Doggett is kidding the life out of me because he has been sent a poem advertising his new tooth paste by you. Henceforth please confine your efforts, both commercial and literary, to this firm."

"Yes, sir," I says. "I'll write you a poem tonight."

"Get out," he hollers and to humor him I got.

Told Zedie that I am a poet and she went completely nutty over me. Her mother, which is foreign talk for me, has allowed me to call again if I wear a wrist watch where I can see it.

Cleared for Yip

When a ship sails on a long voyage for nowhere in particular she frequently "clears for Yip."

I want to make a voyage on a ship that's cleared for Yip.

With an able-bodied crew of sailor men.

Who will take a chance on sailing any place upon the map.

And who don't intend to hurry back again.

For to cruise and keep on cruising by a course that's ours for choosing Or to anchor where the gentle ripples lap.

In some tropic harbor hazy is a dream To see me crazy.

And I want to pack my kit and clear for Yip.

I have had enough of liners with a load of frozen truck.

Which they cover to the minute by the clock.

Put me on a dingy freighter, with a husky, cleared stack.

That is lying at some weather-beaten pier.

I would rather not be knowing just the part that she is going.

And for speed, I do not really give a rap.

Just to blow across the ocean is the pace to suit my notion.

Just to see the hawyers in and clear for Yip.

Is she sucking sunken treasure or a load of frozen truck.

As she makes her heavy way across the tides?

Will she back for nearly plunder by a secret coral reef from nowhere.

Or bring back a load of guano and of hides?

She may carry what she pleases, from a secret cargo of fireworks.

If she'll only sail regardless round the map.

If she'll only sort of go where it's a secret coral reef from nowhere.

If she'll only take me on and clear for Yip!

SECOND-HAND CLOTHING

Goodwill Industries Gets Permission From License Board to Operate Store

In spite of strenuous opposition by representatives of various local organizations, the Lowell Goodwill Industries, Inc., received permission last evening from the license board to operate a second-hand clothing store in a room of the Ministry-at-Large Free church, on Middlesex street. Protesting that the enterprise was an unsuitable one for premises where divine services are held, and also invoking sanitary grounds, members of the Free church congregation, together with speakers from sundry social and fraternal bodies which utilize the church for the purpose of holding gatherings, religious and otherwise, strongly urged that a license be refused. On the other hand there was the evidence of Henry H. Harris, principal of the high school, and Rev. Leslie C. Boakes, both of these proponents of the petition for a license stressed the humanitarian aims which inspire the activities of the Goodwill Industries, and answered the arguments relative to unhealthful conditions by stating that all clothing would be thoroughly fumigated before being allowed in the church structure.

After a conference in private, the commissioners announced their decision to permit the industries to open during the present month, although a renewal will have to be sought May 1, in accord with the city ordinance.

"Juke" Complaint

The commissioners were also occupied for some time, in the course of the meeting, with the case of Peter Coury, proprietor of a Thorndike street variety store. Officers Kilvan and O'Sullivan, of the liquor squad, appeared to lodge complaint against Coury for the sale of Jamaica ginger, together with ginger ale, on the evening of April 3. They mentioned that Judge Enright fined Coury $100 when he came before the police court to answer to a charge of illegal sale, and they indicated the desirability of stopping the business done locally in Jamaica ginger as dispensed for other than medicinal purposes.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Siefert Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pottsville, Pa.—"I suffered with female trouble for four or five years and was very irregular. I was not fit to do my work at times and took medicine from a doctor and got no benefit. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and took it and got all right. I gained twenty pounds or more and am now able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. SALLIE SIEFERT, 313 W. Fourth Street, Pottsville, Pa.

The everyday life of many housewives is a continual struggle with weakness and pain. There is nothing more wearing than the ceaseless round of household duties and they become doubly hard when some female trouble makes every bone and muscle ache, and nerves all on edge.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Siefert did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

posers. In rebuttal, Judge John J. Pickman stated that in the instance in question, the police representative had told a tale of a father's illness and an inability to secure Jamaica ginger at a drugstore because of meagre funds. This narrative, when related by Coury in the police court, was stigmatized as "preposterous and nonsensical" by Judge Enright. The members of the commission, however, took no action in the matter but will give their decision at a later date. The case of Coury was directly followed by the discussion of the Goodwill Industries petition. The first remonstrant, George A. Marshall, for the British-American Social club, urged that the utilization of the church premises as a second-hand clothing store would work injustice upon the organizations now employing the building as a meeting-place. He expressed a fear that strangers would do harm to $150 worth of property which he said the British-Americans have at the church. After stating that he doubted the zeal with which people would gather for suppers where cast-off garments were on sale, he was questioned by members of the commission. Agnes F. Atkinson, of the Free church congregation, took exception to the proposed mercantile establishment on religious grounds. Old W. F. Dawson, also a member of the church, who declared that the plan would disrupt the congregation. Fred Toye, a third representative of the Free church, called attention to the fact that the room which the Goodwill Industries project to use for the sale of cast-off garments is a Sunday school room. He expressed dissatisfaction with the idea of children gathering in the premises for the purpose of purchasing second-hand clothing. Judge Enright, signer of the petition, told the directors that she belonged to the church, he stated that the matter had been handled over the heads of the directors. The Hon. Flake Lodge, I.O. G.T., was represented by Mr. Jones, who told of $600 worth of the organization's property being tied up in the building. He feared, he stated, that it would be injured by those brought to the premises by the proposed arrangement. For the daughters of St. George, Mrs. George Marshall declared that the plan would bring disease.

Principal Harris Speaks

Henry H. Harris, principal of the high school, was at this point heard in favor of the application. Mr. Harris was forced to leave before the close of the meeting and was therefore unable to make his arguments prior to the closing of the pleas of the remonstrants. He opened his statement by telling of his secretaryship of the Ministry-at-Large church during the past seven years, and he then briefly sketched the history of the institution from its foundation in 1814. He next read the unanimously endorsed resolution of the board of directors, reading: "Voted, to permit the Goodwill Industries to use the front room of the Ministry-at-Large building, 150 Middlesex street, and also the front entrance, two days a week for two months, such use not to conflict with any prearranged use." The objectors now resumed their arguments. William Woodcock of the Olympia Soccer club, and Arnold Robinson, the secretary, spoke briefly in opposition to the arrangement, and then Rev. Mr. Boakes took up the case in favor of the petition, as representing the industries. He replied to the protest against unsanitary conditions by stating that fumigation will do away with this disadvantage. He then read a lengthy statement in support of the petition and of the Lowell Goodwill Industries which, he said, is a non-sectarian institution.

Mr. Hurd of the board of directors, and Mrs. Hurd now added their arguments in favor of the application and the meeting was then declared adjourned.

Candidates for Irish Parliament

DUBLIN, April 21.—Official lists of candidates for the north of Ireland parliament which has been created by the Irish act, put into operation April 19, have been completed. There are 42 unionists, 14 nationalists and 19 Sinn Fein candidates and from them will be elected the occupants of the 52 seats. Joseph Devlin has been chosen for the West Belfast—County Antrim—County Armagh constituency, but in the event of his election is pledged to ignore the summons to attend meetings. It may sound contradictory, but Donegal, the most northern county of Ireland, has been the first to select a candidate for the south of Ireland parliament. He is Major R. L. Moore, master of the Londonderry Orangemen and he is the unionist nominee.

RATIFY TREATY WITH COLOMBIA

Senate Votes 69 to 19 to Pay That Country $25,000,000

Regarded as Important Victory for Harding Administration

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Expressions of gratification were general today in administration circles over what was regarded as a significant test of senate support for administration foreign policies in that body's ratification of the long-pending Colombian treaty. At the close of a final session of heated debate, the treaty, which grew out of the partitioning of Panama and provides for payment by the United States of $25,000,000 to the South American republic, was ratified with a margin, 11 votes over the necessary two-thirds majority, 16 republicans and four democrats opposing ratification. The vote was 69 to 19.

In rejecting all amendments to the pact, the senate turned down proposals of Senators Felmeyer, republican, Washington, and Wadsworth, republican, New York, to restrict the rights of Colombia under the treaty as to use of the Panama canal, and another amendment offered by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, to insert a clause declaring the treaty was not to be construed as implying the United States had added in the Panamanian revolt. Other amendments defeated included that of Senator Randall, democrat, Louisiana, proposing an alliance with Colombia and the cession by that country to the United States of several islands.

Senator Lodge, who joined in an adverse report in 1911, led the fight for ratification. His change, along with that of other republicans, from opposition to the original treaty to advocacy of the amended pact, was one of the points of attack by the progressives.

With the senate in a lull today, after clearing its program of the first major business of the extra session, the house was prepared to resume debate on the immigration restriction bill with probability of reaching a final vote before adjournment. Probably the next business to come before the senate, the Knox peace resolution was to be taken up today by the foreign relations committee. Whether the committee planned to report the resolution out today, however, remained in doubt.

NEW PICKEREL LAW
Lowell fishermen who are partial to the fascination of ensnaring pickerel are warned that a law just passed by the legislature, forbids the taking of pickerel less than 12 inches in length from the waters of Massachusetts before April 1, 1922. Formerly, 10 inches was the minimum. Chapter 221 of the acts of 1921 provides for a fine of $1 for each pickerel less than 12 inches in length found in the possession of anybody in this state.

BIG CROWDS AT WOMEN'S MISSION

The women's mission being conducted this week at St. Margaret's church by members of the Dominican order is being attended by unusually large numbers. The mission is in charge of Rev. J. R. Higgins, O.P., who is being assisted by Rev. Arthur Baxter, O.P., Rev. Fr. Baxter, O.P. was former chaplain of the 27th New York Regiment and saw extensive service in the world war.

Last evening 1500 women were at the mission, many of them coming from other parishes. The sanctuary and every other available place in the church was filled and this evening, in anticipation of an even larger crowd, both vestries will be thrown open. Both missionaries are eloquent speakers.

The women's mission will close Sunday afternoon and the men's mission will open Sunday evening.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. At times the terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided after years of fruitless study that he could be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body. With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Fred Howard has been appointed agent for Allen-rheu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.—Adv.

CASE IS SETTLED OUT OF COURT

An agreement of judgment has been entered into by the parties concerned in the case of James C. Donovan vs. the City of Lowell, an action in which Mr. Donovan sought to recover for damage to his property in Market street following the bursting of a city water main several years ago. The judgment is in favor of the city and against the Lowell Electric Light corporation. When the case was heard by an auditor, the city contended that the water pipe in question was broken through the negligence of the Electric Light corporation. The auditor who sat on the case, Gilbert A. A. Pevey, found for the city, but his finding was never confirmed and the case was slated to be placed on the jury trial list. In the meantime, however, an agreement has been reached and the Electric Light corporation has paid judgment of approximately $1000.

NICE LITTLE TRIP FOR SOMEBODY

The question of public baths in their relation to the health of a community will be discussed by experts in the construction of indoor and outdoor public baths. The meetings will afford municipalities in New England opportunity to become acquainted with what other cities are doing in this line.

$100,000,000 To Aid Cattle Producers

CHICAGO, April 21.—Legislation directing the secretary of the treasury to turn over $100,000,000 of the profits of the Federal Reserve bank to Federal Land banks, to be loaned by the latter institutions on stock cattle for the purpose of assisting cattle producers, has been recommended as a part of the congressional program by W. P. G. Harding, governor of the Federal Reserve board, according to a statement today by Everett C. Brown, president of the National Livestock exchange. Such legislation, in the opinion of Mr. Brown, would enable a multitude of livestock men who might otherwise have been forced out of the business to continue production. Consumers also should receive a benefit from the increase in production thus made possible, the statement declared.

Seized Japanese Steamer Is Released

SCENES IN NORMAN FIELDS WHERE RUSH IMPENDS

TAKE AIRPLANES TO THE OIL FIELDS

EDMONTON, Alberta, April 21.—Some of the folks who are planning to join the stampede into the newly discovered oil country that lies on the Arctic circle in northern Canada have a hazy idea of the hardships such a journey entails.

The man from New York state, for example, who wired railroad officials here to reserve sleeping car accommodations for him to Fort Norman will be disappointed.

For the only method by which he can cover the 1500-mile stretch to the oil district centering about Norman will be an arduous journey of weeks by river boat, a longer and more dangerous trek by wagon, or by airplane.

Airplanes, for the first time in history, will be used in the rush for claims. The Imperial Oil company has two planes already on the job, and in May will begin the job of conveying men and surveying instruments across the hundreds of miles of wilderness. These will be for company employees only, but several other companies are being formed for carrying passengers. The fare will be $1000 for the round trip. Steamer fare is $300.

Although navigation of ice-locked rivers and lakes will not open until late in May, the first steamer loads of passengers and freight are now being

MIDDLESEX WOMEN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS

A large number of Greek residents of this city were the guests of the Middlesex Women's club in Colonial hall last evening and were treated to an exceptionally enjoyable program of entertainment. Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert, Jr., spoke of ancient Greek music and showed an interesting series of lantern slides made from pictures which he took himself while a student in Greece. Part of his remarks were spoken in Greek. A group of young women from the International Institute gave a brief musical program. Miss Esther Nikolov was at the piano and Misses Christine Recoute, Soteria Sarris, Georgia Sarris, Harceia Sarris and Angelina Kelpouris played banjos.

This new way gets your clothes out hours earlier

MONDAY morning just started and your washing all done! Snowy white, immaculately clean clothes flapping on the line, getting the early morning sun. And the whole day before you!

You think it sounds impossible. But just wash your clothes the new way—the Rinso way.

Rinso is the new form of soap for the family washing. It comes in fine granules, so high in cleansing value that they loosen all the dirt while the clothes are soaking.

You put the clothes at night into Rinso suds and forget them. In the morning you rinse thoroughly and the dirt is gone. Only the worst spots need a light rubbing in your hands. Your clothes soak as safely in Rinso suds as in water alone. There is nothing to injure them. For Rinso is so pure it does not even redden the hands.

Wash your clothes the easy Rinso way this very next Monday. You will never again be willing to go back to the old way of rubbing them clean.

Rinso softens hard water. For hard water make an increased amount of the "soap liquid" according to directions on the package and continue adding this to your tub of cold water until you have a good rich suds.

Your grocer and the department stores have Rinso. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

FRANCE TO USE RIVERS TO MAKE ELECTRICITY

PARIS, April 21.—Plans now in course of preparation by the French government contemplate the development of a yearly average of 4,000,000 horse-power by 1934 through the utilization of the rivers of the country for the manufacture of electricity.

The creation of energy for the electrification of the railways and the big industries of France has received tremendous impetus since the armistice. Reports just completed show that within the last three years 450,000,000 francs have been invested in 49 power plants throughout France by French investors.

The recent visit of President Millerand to the valley of the Rhone revived interest in the famous Rhone water power project, plans for which have been completed and now are before the senate for ratification. The chamber of deputies approved the scheme in October 1919.

The Rhone project, as it is known in Europe, is one of the most comprehensive water-power developments ever conceived and involves the expenditure of 3,000,000,000 francs. No fewer than 20 lesser projects have been launched in France but the Rhone is further advanced than the others.

It has been estimated that the Rhone scheme, together with the other big projects, would effect an annual saving of 5,000,000 tons of coal, thus diverting this to other purposes and materially reducing the importation of coal by France.

The Rhone plan would make navigable between 400 and 500 kilometers of that river, would reclaim 650,000 acres of ground now useless, and probably place at the door of Paris electricity at a price within the reach of everyone.

The government plans to make the Rhone, as well as all the other projects, a "recreation of the people" through the issuance of six per cent. non-taxable bonds, the proceeds to be used in construction. The finance committee of the senate now has the matter before it because of the financial depression and the already great burdens on the French treasury, the actual construction probably will not begin for several years.

The majority of the plants for hydro-electric development concern the rivers Rhone, Garonne, Rhine and Loire.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE MEETING

The League of Catholic Women will hold its regular monthly meeting in Associate hall at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. The speaker of the occasion will be Mrs. Francis Slattery, head of the league in the archdiocese of Boston, who will speak on "Catholic Organizations." Preceding the lecture will be the second oratorio attempted by the league choral club assisted by singers from the choirs of the various Catholic churches of the city. This time "The Holy City" will be sung with Mrs. Joseph W. Green leading. The singers will be accompanied by the league orchestra directed by Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell and Miss Grace Gilday Donohue, harpist. The oratorio will be under the general direction of Mrs. John T. Donohue. Miss Alice T. Lee, the president, will preside.

NEW TIME EFFECTIVE SUNDAY MORNING

Daylight saving will go into effect at 2 o'clock next Sunday morning to continue until 2 a. m. on the last Sunday in September. The change in time will be effective throughout Massachusetts in accordance with chapter 145 of the Acts of 1921 and Lowell people are beginning to make preparations accordingly.

The period of daylight saving has been considerably shortened by the new law which amended the law previously in vogue. Last year the daylight saving period continued from the last Sunday in March to the last Sunday in October, but this year a month is cut off at either end.

Most of the Lowell churches will hold their services in conformity to the new time next Sunday and at the services last Sunday members of the various congregations were requested to turn forward their clocks and watches one hour before retiring Saturday night. The street railway company will observe the new time beginning Sunday morning. During the daylight saving period Massachusetts standard time will be one hour in advance of eastern standard time.

About the only opportunity for misunderstanding which the new order of things will bring about will be the time of arrival and departure of trains. According to F. W. Brown, general passenger agent of the Boston & Maine in this city, the railroad will continue to operate by eastern standard or old time. Clocks in the stations and the watches of employees will be according to the old time. However, the leaving and arriving time of some trains will be changed while others will remain unchanged. A new timetable which will become effective Sunday will be issued in a day or two and the only safe guide for passengers will be one of these tables. There is no set rule which can be printed to assist travelers because of the lack of uniformity in the policy of the road in changing the schedules. The difficulty in establishing any set rule is caused by the fact that New Hampshire will continue to observe the old time and many trains ply between Lowell and that state.

The clock in city hall tower will be pushed forward an hour late Saturday night and those in charge of other public clocks about the city will undoubtedly make the change at that time or early Sunday morning. The safest way for the individual to comply with the new time is to set his watch or clock ahead one hour before he retires Saturday night and if he is to do any railroad traveling, to acquire a new timetable by that time.

AUCTION SALE OF UNCLAIMED PACKAGES

An auction sale of unclaimed express packages, always an event of more or less merit to onlookers and of either great happiness or evident disappointment to purchasers, will take place at 204 Central street next Saturday afternoon beginning at 1:30 o'clock. The sale is designed to dispose of unclaimed packages now in the possession of the Manchester & Concord and Boston & Lowell Express companies. The auction will take place in the building formerly occupied by the Arlington hotel.

ENORMOUS PROFITS BY GERMAN INDUSTRIES

DUESSELDORF, April 21.—Enormous and still increasing profits compared with those made in 1914 are being made in the German coal, iron, machinery, textile paper, glass and electrical industries, according to an article in Duesseldorfer Lokal Zeitung. The paper quotes the reports of numerous companies, among them being one manufacturing copper and brass tubing and plate at Duisburg which paid a dividend of 24 percent and a bonus of 20 percent. Its shares which were quoted in Berlin at 157 at the end of 1919 are now 630.

A 15 percent dividend declared by the Kammgarn Spinning works of Duesseldorf was only ten percent of the profits earned, says the German newspaper. In the ten years previous this company had regularly declared a dividend of only eight percent.

A similar company declared in 1920 a dividend of 40 percent, as compared with one of 11 percent in the three preceding years.

The writer of the article points out that but for the evidence of such figures Germany could more effectively have resisted the demands of her opponents that she make full reparation to the allies.

HERE IS YOUR HUSBAND

What is Left of Him—

When the Day's Work is Over

Why is it that many a man is struggling, toiling, trying to get ahead but at the end of each day, he is practically a physical wreck, while another man does as much or more work; and makes ten times more money and comes home to his family smiling, full of life and "feeling bully?"

This great difference in men may be due solely to the difference in their blood. Today about one person out of every three is said to suffer more or less from the great devastating weakness brought on by malnutrition or lack of sufficient nourishment; which is caused not by lack of food but often by lack of sufficient organic iron in the blood to enable us to get the full strength out of our food.

Food is worth nothing unless you get the strength and nourishment out of it. In fact it often happens that the more you eat the more you starve as your digestive organs are unable to handle much food, when your blood lacks iron and you often think you have stomach trouble or other ailments when it isn't that at all—simply eat less and take organic iron. Iron is the matter principle of the blood and blood is life. It is the organic iron in your blood that carries the oxygen that feeds your brain and removes the poisonous waste that would otherwise accumulate in your body cells. Without iron your brain gets no oxygen. Without plenty of rich red blood and oxygen, your brain becomes dull and heavy; it cannot think right; you make bad decisions; do foolish things; your intellect is poorer and get along as he should—perhaps poorer; your memory often fails—no matter if it isn't his fault at all. He has the brains.

SAND, STONE AND TAR POSTAL EMPLOYEES WILL CARRY FIREARMS FOR STREET DEPT.

Bids for sand, crushed stone and refined tar for the use of the street department during the season of 1921 were opened this morning in the purchasing agent's office and showed the same tendency toward a decrease in price as compared with a year ago that has been characteristic of bids received this year for other supplies used by the street department.

John Brady was the lower of two bidders to supply sand for the department. His figure was six cents per bag or 95 cents per cubic yard. P. C. C. entered a bid of eight cents per bag or 11 per cubic yard. Last year Mr. Brady was given the contract at $1.49 per cubic yard.

There were two bidders desiring to supply refined tar during the present season. The American Tar Co. and the Barrett Mfr. Co. each entered a bid of 15 cents per gallon if delivered on the job; Home Coal Co., $2.65 per ton delivered; Antonio Pillato, $2.48, f.o.b. cars; $2.65 delivered; Green Crushed Stone Co., $2.61, f.o.b. cars; $3.10 delivered.

Fire in Maine Central Terminal at Calais, Me.

CALAIS, Me., April 20.—The Maine Central railroad sustained a fire loss of approximately $100,000 today at its terminal here. The engine house, car repair shops, four locomotives, two passenger and four freight cars, a steam shovel, lumber shed, blacksmith shop and work equipment, were burned.

FARMERS TO APPEAL TO PRES. HARDING

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Farmers from all parts of the United States meeting here today under the auspices of the National Farmers' Union decided to take their fight for a reduction in freight rates direct to President Harding.

This decision was reached after spokesmen for the farmers had conferred with members of the Interstate Commerce commission to urge lower rates. The delegates apparently were dissatisfied with the outcome of this conference.

At the conference with the commission, the farmers' spokesmen said that besides reducing the loss now sustained by the farmers in the sale of their crops, a lowering of freight rates would be a big psychological factor in starting the marketing of farm products and a general price reduction in other lines.

Unable to market their own products, the farmers, according to their spokesmen, are virtually on a buyers' strike as there is no prospect of conditions improving in time to bring better prices for next year's crops.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F.M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 15c and 30c

BLACKHEADS GO QUICK

BY THIS SIMPLE METHOD

Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body, go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of calomel powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. The calomel powder and the hot water have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them open and unsightly—unless the blackheads are big and soft they will not come out, while the simple application of calomel powder and water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition. You can get calomel powder at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method.—Adv.

Police Continue Search for Woman Companion on Night Officer Was Slain

MALDEN, April 21.—Clarence W. Lead, the Melrose shoe salesman, who is charged with killing Patrolman James A. Preston on a lonely road in Wakefield on the night of April 9, came before the district court today for a hearing, but the case was continued by agreement until May 5.

Assistant District Attorney Herman A. Wagner of Middlesex county explained that the case would be submitted to a special session of the grand jury next week and said that a report was expected by May 5. The authorities are still actively pursuing their effort to identify the woman who they assert was his companion on the night ride which ended with his abandonment of his automobile some distance beyond the scene of the crime.

GUESS AGAIN, FATHER

AMERICANS ATTACKED BY GERMAN MOB

BERLIN, April 21 (by the Associated Press).—Mr. and Mrs. James E. Tobin of Chicago were attacked by a crowd of German men, women and children Tuesday as they sat on the terrace of Sans Souci park after the funeral of former Empress Augusta Victoria.

The Americans were rescued by a security policeman and two German civilians, who locked arms and surrounded them, receiving a pelting of sticks, stones and umbrellas in defiance of the couple until they were able to escort them to the police station in Potsdam. Here a patrol of extra policemen dispersed the crowd.

During the attack the policeman and the two German civilians were unable to quiet the crowd, members of which were shouting, "Foreigners! Foreigners!" Nor could they entirely shield the Americans. Mr. Tobin was beaten about the head and shoulders, and his wife received a bruised nose. Her hat was torn from her head, her hair was pulled and she was struck on her arms and body by umbrellas.

German police headquarters in its report said: "The Americans were not to blame, and they desire that there be no further mention of the affair."

"The mob," said Mr. Tobin, "was incited by an old woman who thought we were French. The crowd attacked us and chased us from Sanssouci park to Potsdam. It is my opinion that we would have been killed except for one policeman and two German civilians."

CARMEN VOTE ON PROPOSALS

Referendum Plans Submitted by Trustees—Leaders See Rejection

Trustees Place Cot Beds in Power Houses and Prepare for Emergency

BOSTON, April 21.—Two proposals submitted by the public trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co., one providing for a wage reduction of approximately 20 per cent on May 1, under agreement with the union, and the other for submission of the question of wages to arbitration with elimination of any working agreement with the union, will be voted upon by the company's 2300 employees. Union leaders predicted that both propositions would be turned down, but said the balloting was not in the nature of a strike vote. They were making no preparations for a suspension of work at this time, they said. Company officials, however, announced that they were ready to meet any emergency and said cot beds had been placed in power houses and car barns in every district of the road, which would be operated regardless of the action of the carmen. In letters sent by the trustees today to all employees it was said that while the trustees would prefer to continue operations with the present force they would run the road with new men if necessary.

They maintained that during the past year the cost of living had declined more than the amount of the proposed wage reduction, and that the public insisted on a lower fare. This has been announced as a policy consistent with the lower wage.

Originally the Eastern Massachusetts employed about 5100 car men but discontinuance of non-paying lines and other reductions since the road went under public control has reduced the number to approximately 2300.

RECORD BROKEN AFTER 20 YEARS

A record which has stood for a quarter century and which was never expected to be broken by the present generation of athletes was shattered recently when Charley Paddock, 20 year old track sensation of the University of California, ran the 220-yard dash in 20.45 seconds, clipping two-fifths of a second from the former record.

Paddock's feat is all the more remarkable in that a few minutes before entering the race he had the world's record for the 100-yard dash, making the century in 9.5 seconds.

Five watches, held by official timers, agreed exactly in each instance. The former 220 record was held jointly by R. J. Wilers who made 20.45 in 1896, R. C. Craig and D. P. Lippincott.

There is some question as to whether or not the record will be officially recorded by the A.A.U., as there may have been a slight wind at the runner's back. Officials of the meet, however, claim the race was run in absolute calm.

WOMEN WANT PLACE ON COMMITTEES

An entire reorganization of democratic city and town committees throughout Massachusetts, so that women shall be represented equally with men in the political machinery of the state, is being carried forward by Miss Gertrude F. Hayes, vice chairman of the democratic state committee, who visited Lowell today and interviewed prominent democrats of the city with this end in view. Miss Hayes came here as the representative of Mr. Arthur T. Lyman, state chairman of the committee, and is expected to return to Lowell tomorrow.

At the present time, she said, the same nature will be accomplished. Miss Hayes is working west in the direction of Springfield.

"The democratic committees of the various municipalities and townships," declared Miss Hayes today, "must be changed so that women participate in them on a strictly fifty-fifty basis. To achieve this result, some of the committees will have to be completely reorganized. In Lowell there is no active committee at the present time; but it is my intention to seek to establish one. For this reason I am trying to get everyone's ideas, both those of men and women. In Lowell I am especially eager to find out from the most prominent people their attitude on questions dealing with reorganization of forces in this commonwealth for Lowell is a city of ideas. Practically the whole of democratic state activity is directed by Miss Hayes at the present time, as Mr. Lyman, the chairman, of the committee in Massachusetts, has placed in her hands most of the conduct of the affairs of the body."

WAR HERO ACQUITTED ON INSANITY PLEA CITY OF HARTFORD MAY LOSE CHARTER

OTTAWA, Ont., April 21.—Philip Konowal, holder of the Victoria Cross, Great Britain's highest award of decoration, was acquitted of murder on the ground of insanity last night after the court had ruled, in effect, that the attention paid by him to the killing of men during the war was partly responsible for his action.

Judge Cousin, in suggesting that the jury bring in a verdict of not guilty, declared that there was question but that Konowal in the summer of 1919 had stabbed Wm. Artick, causing his death, but it had been shown, the court pointed out, that Konowal had received injuries in France which had caused an organic disease of the brain. The killing which the prisoner had witnessed in his four years of service, the court added, had left their impression on the prisoner so that on his return to Canada when the occasion had arisen "he reverted to type, and committed an atrocious crime but was mentally deranged and should not be held guilty of murder."

Konowal will be committed to an insane asylum.

Sen. Harrison Declares Harvey Appointed Ambassador as Reward For Efforts to Discredit Wilson

BITTER ATTACK
MADE IN SENATE

Harrison Says Harvey's Actions Only "Comparable to Milton's Hell Hounds"

Called "Vindictive, Self-Annointed, Intolerant Political Accident"

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, charged today in the senate that the appointment of George Harvey by President Harding as ambassador to Great Britain, was a "reward for his efforts" to discredit the Wilson administration.

The Mississippi senator said Mr. Harvey's "pursuit of Wilson through his journals and otherwise, are only comparable to Milton's Hell Hounds that were stationed at the gates of the infernal regions." He added that the ambassador had "no equal as a creator of prejudice and a stirrer of strife," and that he was "a vindictive, self-annointed, intolerant political accident."

Senator Harrison said he feared Col. Harvey's arrival in London would cause Great Britain and other nations to believe that "he will use whatever influence he may possess and the power of his position in attempts to destroy the League of Nations."

Declaring that his attempt to obtain the consideration of Col. Harvey's nomination in open session of the senate had been blocked, Senator Harrison said the nomination was "of such peculiar making and such potential import that the country has a right to know the underlying facts that prompted the nomination and the influence that brought about its confirmation."

"Few men in the history of journalism," the senator said, "have possessed to a more remarkable degree qualities of genius for violent expression, caustic criticism, and the power through fair or foul means to employ phrases intended to appeal to prejudice and to arouse hatred and resentment. He is a remarkable man in that his whole life has been one of inconsistency and vacillation. He never remained true to any purpose, loyal to any friend, or

O'DALY PLEADS NOT GUILTY

In Court on Charge of Larceny of $40,000 From Boston City Treasury

Had Been Slated to Assume Office of City Treasurer Today

BOSTON, April 21.—Thomas J. O'Daly, who had been slated to assume the office of city treasurer, today appeared in court instead to answer to a charge of larceny of $40,000 of city funds under his care as cashier of the treasury department. According to announcement yesterday by Mayor Peters, O'Daly has admitted that he took the money but today he entered a formal plea of not guilty and the case was continued by agreement until May 9. Bonds of $10,000 under which he was released after his arrest last night, were continued.

The audit of the books of the treasurer's office started several days ago because of the resignation of Thomas W. Murray as city treasurer, probably will not be completed for two weeks. It was ordered largely for the purpose of giving O'Daly a clean slate when he took office as treasurer but instead, it is alleged to have uncovered manipulations of the accounts to cover thefts extending over the 10 years that he has held the office of cashier.

ORGANIZATION OF WAR STAFF

Sec. Weeks Announces Formation of War Staff Headed by Gen. Pershing

To Take Charge of Field Operations of Armies of U. S. in Time of War

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Organization of a war staff headed by General Pershing to take charge of field operations of the armies of the United States in time of war, was announced today by Secretary Weeks.

Instant preparation in time of peace for active military operations was given by the secretary as the reason for the new organization. The organization headed by General Pershing will be entirely separate from the office of the chief of staff, which will continue to direct the administration of the military establishment in time of peace. General Pershing will have a skeletonized staff which will correspond to that at Chaumont during the world war, and which will concern itself entirely with problems of strategy, tactics and war organization.

"We are going to have a skeletonized general headquarters," established in the war department, said Secretary Weeks. "Its purpose would be to keep us instantly prepared for active military operations. The details will be given out later, but General Pershing will be at the head of the activity."

Details of the plan are difficult to arrange owing to the wording of the laws, but the chief of staff will continue to direct the administration of the army in time of peace. Before the world war, Secretary Weeks explained, Marshal Joffre had been similarly selected to command the armies of France, if war came, and organized a skeleton staff which was instantly available. Secretary Weeks would not confirm or deny rumors that Major General James G. Harbord, who was for a time General Pershing's chief of staff in France and later head of the service of supply, had been selected to relieve Major General Peyton C. March as chief of staff of the army. It was thought probable by some officers that General Harbord might become General Pershing's chief aide on the war staff.

HARVARD STUDENT DROWNED IN CHARLES

BOSTON, April 21.—Gerhard Fetzner of Buffalo, a Harvard university student, was drowned in the Charles river today when waves thrown up in the wake of a launch accompanying the "Varsity" eight, capsized a canoe in which he and John C. Schmeck of Cincinnati were paddling. Schmeck was rescued by L. E. McCagg of New York, captain of the crimson crew.

When the canoe capsized both occupants started to swim for shore but Fetzner had taken only a few strokes when he sank. The members of the "Varsity" eight had abandoned their shell to help the men. Fetzner went down too soon to allow anyone to reach his side, but Captain McCagg caught Schmeck and towed him to safety when he too appeared to be having trouble to swim.

Evidences of Good Citizenship Did Not Help Adam Nasutowicz

Defendant Fined $100 for Operating an Automobile While Intoxicated

Boy Steals From Man Who Befriended, Fed and Sheltered Him

In spite of his protests that he is "an honest fellow," that he pays his taxes, doesn't run into people with his automobile, etc., Adam Nasutowicz was fined $100 in the police court this morning, on charges of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. A charge of drunkenness was filed. Officer Gookin, of the Chestnut force, testified that the defendant came through the square at a speed of 35 or 40 miles per hour. When he reached the traffic sign, he swerved to the left, said the officer, who added that this was fortunate as there were several people boarding a car on the right. "If he had not gone to the left, he would certainly have hit them,"

Labor Board Rules Against Receiver of Atlanta, Birmingham &amp; Atlantic R. R.

Declares He Acted in Violation of Spirit and Letter of Transportation Act

CHICAGO, April 21.—The railroad labor board today ruled that the receiver of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad in reducing wages of its employees in compliance with a decision by Federal Judge S. F. Sibley had acted in violation of the spirit and letter of the transportation act. The board declared that it was powerless to take action in the case at present, and suggested that the employees, most of whom now are on strike, again hold conferences with the owners, and, if an agreement is not reached, bring the case back to the labor board.

"The duty to obey a decision of this board is not any less an obligation on the receivers of a road than on the owners of a road," the decision said. The case first came before the board last January when the road posted notices of wage reductions. Officers of the road told the board the carrier was losing $100,000 monthly and had to cut wages in order to exist. The board ordered the reduction notices withdrawn and told the employees to confer with their workers in accordance with the transportation act. When the case again came up it was brought out that the road did not contest the justice of the wages set by the board but pleaded only inability to pay. The board ruled that the financial condition of the road was not a matter for it to act upon, deciding that such matters should go before the interstate commerce commission.

Subsequently the road went into the hands of a receiver and Judge Sibley authorized the wage reductions. Strike then was called on the line. The decision today said that the board believed that a misunderstanding and the exigencies of the case had caused the federal court to authorize the reductions instead of sending the case back to the labor board.

Report "Big Bill" Haywood Has Fled From U. S. To Russia

CHICAGO, April 21.—Federal officials today received confidential information that William D. Haywood, secretary of the Industrial Workers of the World and scheduled to begin a sentence at the Leavenworth, Kansas, penitentiary, this week, had fled from the United States and now is in either Moscow or Riga.

Charles F. Clynne, United States district attorney, announced that a search had been started for Haywood. "He is not at Leavenworth, Chicago nor New York, and we have been privately informed that he has lauded either at Moscow or Riga," said Mr. Clynne. "That is all we know about it but we expect to have definite information very quickly."

Otto Christensen, attorney for Haywood, said he had been informed that Haywood sailed from New York on the Oscar II about April 1 and landed at Riga about April 15. He said he thought Haywood was not fleeing from the penitentiary sentence.

Reports Arrival in Russia

NEW YORK, April 21.—Officials of the American Civil Liberties union here stated today that they had been advised that "Big Bill" Haywood, for whom federal authorities are searching, had arrived in Russia. This information, it was said, had been supplied by friends of the I.W.W. leader. The New York Call today stated Haywood had sailed from New York on the Oscar II for Stockholm last month, as one of seven delegates to the Moscow trade union internationale which opens July 1.

Officials of the Scandinavian-American line, which operates the Oscar II, said their passenger records showed no name that ever resembled "Haywood," while operators of other passenger vessels clearing for Scandinavian ports last month, made the same report.

Close federal check was maintained on all steamship passengers by the passport bureau last month. In addition to a passport, a sailing permit was required and the documents were inspected at the pier before the passenger was allowed to board. The Oscar II carried only first class passengers.

Changes in Knox Peace Resolution

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Knox resolution to end the state of war was taken up today by the senate foreign relations committee, but final action deferred until Monday. Senator Knox said he expected the resolution to be reported to the senate at that time and debate begun almost immediately. Brief discussion is in prospect, he added, with sentiment general for adoption of the measure in a few days. Some minor changes in the resolution were decided upon today by the committee.

The most important one, Senator Knox said, was to write a new clause for that now in the resolution relating to termination of the status of the war with the imperial Austrian government. In the original resolution, the situation with Germany was dealt with at length, while that with Austria was covered in a brief paragraph. Senator Knox was delegated to revise and expand the section for consideration of the committee Monday.

MAN SHERIFF FORGOT TO WORK DELAYED ON THE HANG GETS LIFE TERM

SHREVEPORT, La., April 21.—Lonnie Eaton, the negro sheriff forgot about when the day set for Eaton's hanging came around last month, is happy today. The state board, after considering the case Wednesday, commuted the death sentence of the negro to life imprisonment, according to reports received here from Baton Rouge, where the board is meeting.

Eaton was convicted of murder several months ago. Governor Parker set the date for the hanging, but the sheriff forgot all about it until the legal date had passed.

When the omission was discovered attorneys for Eaton held that as he had been in jeopardy once, his execution would be illegal. Governor Parker secured opinions from members of the bar, but the attorney general held that as Eaton had been sentenced to be hanged, the law required that the sentence be carried out, unless executive clemency was extended. The matter was then allowed to rest until the meeting of the pardon board.

CAUGHT TRYING

Bandits Fled in Auto—Became Confused and Left Car and Took to Woods

WOBBURN, April 21.—For two hours today eight policemen carried on a running fight with three men who had been discovered in an attempt to break into the Boston &amp; Maine railroad station at North Woburn. The trio fled in an automobile but became confused on the road and abandoned the car near the Reading-Wilmington line. They took to the woods and the officers followed, exchanging shots with them several times. The men eventually escaped. The automobile was identified as one that had been stolen last night from Mary T. Powers of Chelsea.

Patrolman Arthur Fay discovered the men at the railroad station about daylight. They drew guns and fired at the van, towards the automobile. Officer Fay was joined shortly afterwards by a squad of policemen who had been sent to investigate reports of suspicious men in the neighborhood, and all the officers gave chase.

The men headed for Reading but a sharp turn in the road apparently caused them to believe they had taken the wrong street and that they could go no further, and they took to the woods with the police close behind. Pastry found the automobile led to the discovery that a lunch cart at Wilmington had been looted. A break in the Winchester postoffice where a window was smashed, and a quantity of mail stolen, also was reported today, but the police said it was doubtful if the latter break was committed by the same band.

COTTON MILLS PROBLEM

New Depreciation Ruling Will Solve Important Tax Assessment Question

NEW YORK, April 21.—Discussion of an important ruling on depreciation submitted recently by the committee on appeals and review, as concerns corporation income tax assessments, is the purport of a letter being sent out by Stuart W. Cramer, president of the National Council of American Cotton Manufacturers.

The ruling in question deals directly with the practice of revenue field agents of computing depreciation back to the organization of a company, in this discussion a cotton mill, on a flat rate, and then reducing invested capital by the amount by which the result so reached exceeds the depreciation reserve set up on the books.

In its ruling, the committee holds that there is no warrant for thus reducing earned surplus because of alleged failure to charge off sufficient depreciation in the past, unless the depreciable assets of the corporation are valued on its books at the beginning of the taxable year at an amount in excess of their actual value at that time, and that this is particularly true of the taxable year at an amount in excess of their actual value at that time.

President Cramer states that this practice inevitably resulted in an excessive and unfair reduction of invested capital.

His letter, which includes the text of the ruling, follows:

"Gentlemen: In our letter of January 1, mention was made that an early ruling on depreciation was expected which would be substantially in accord with my remarks at the Richmond convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association on the subject.

"It is gratifying to state that the acting commissioner of internal revenue has just accepted for the guidance of the income tax unit a recommendation of the committee on appeals and review covering this important matter which will be of great interest to most of our members.

"In answer to a request for advice relative to a practice which has become very common among field agents the committee states that in its judgment there is no warrant for reducing earned surplus because of alleged failure to charge off sufficient depreciation in the past, unless the depreciable assets of the corporation are valued on its books at the beginning of the taxable year at an amount in excess of their actual value at that time, and that this is particularly true

Had to Live On Milk and Bread Before He Got Tanlac—Gains 18 Pounds and Eats Anything Now

"Before I got Tanlac I was so run down, weak and nervous I had to quit driving my car; but now I can drive in the thickest of traffic without the least uneasiness, for my hand is as steady on the wheel as if it had grown there," was the statement made by James T. McKechnie, well known merchant of Middleboro, Mass., recently. Mr. McKechnie has been in business at Middleboro for 11 years, is prominent in fraternal order circles, and has scores of friends throughout the state.

"I suffered from a general run down condition. I felt tired all the time, seemed to have no energy, and it was an effort to get up from my chair or move about in any way. My stomach was so disordered I could scarcely eat anything, and at times even the smell of food would make me sick, and I just had to live on a little milk and bread. I couldn't sleep any to speak of, and was so nervous and restless every night I just could not stay in bed. Even the sound of an automobile horn would set my nerves on edge, and I lost 15 pounds in weight and was so thin I looked hardly more than a frame.

"Well, the difference Tanlac has made in my condition certainly is remarkable. I've gained 18 pounds in weight, and my appetite is so good three meals are not enough for me, and I sometimes eat something between meals. I can eat a heavy meal just before going to bed and then sleep like a log all night. In fact, I never felt better in my life, and I owe my good health to Tanlac. I'm always telling my friends about it, for I think it's the greatest medicine in the world."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Green's Drug store under the direction of a special Tanlac representative, by Wright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass., Snow's Pharmacy, Concord, Mass., and by the leading druggist in every town. Adv.

HOW THE PHOTOGRAPHER SOFTENS PORTRAIT

A certain "fuzzy" effect in motion picture pictures the name of the great motion picture producer who was the first to use it.

Most folks supposed that the whole thing is accomplished with a camera slightly out of focus. That is not the case, although the real method is simple and curiously distorted.

The new system is called "diffused focus." The camera is equipped with a lens made of two lenses.

In the diffused focus lenses, the two lenses making up the system have slightly different focal lengths. One, say, throws a sharp focus at two inches and the other at two and three-tenths inches. Then, when the film is exposed there are two images, each a little different from the other, though each is sharp alone.

The blending of these two large images gives the artistic "fuzzy" effect so pleasing to most movie patrons and quite the thing among society portrait photographers.

never has been and never will be valid and binding.

The theories of Patriots day have not receded sufficiently to make the utterances of Lloyd George agreeable reading matter for a place in an American newspaper.

No true American is seeking to stir up strife and animosity between his own government and the British government, and at the same time, he is not willing to have any attitude of the British government supported by the distortion of historical truth.

HUGH J. MOLLOY.

LITTLE VISITS WITH FEATHERED FRIENDS

BY MARY SEAMAN

If you want some real fun during the winter months, get a small piece of velvet and fasten it to a tree within plain view of a window through which you can keep watch. You will have many bird guests, but of all of them you will find no other so busy, so mysterious, so industrious about what concerns you, as the brown creeper. He is a diligent searcher of the trees for the eggs and eggs on which he lives.

You will know him the first time he arrives at your nest, for he is brown and white, but so marked that on some trees he scarcely can be detected. His tail feathers are stiffened and pointed, so that they aid him in clinging while he hunts his food. He begins at the base of one rough-barked tree and goes over it thoroughly, usually proceeding upward, though not always. When he is quite satisfied that he has done a good job, he sits silently to another tree and begins there as he did on the first.

I have noticed that the brown creeper is astonishingly fearless, and by being quiet I have crept very close to him. In this way only will you be able to appreciate fully the beautiful markings on back and wings, and once having seen these you will place him among your beautiful bird friends.

He loves suet very well, as that is animal food and he is an insect eater; but the bluejays steal suet so readily that I have resorted to the expedient of rendering the suet and pouring it while hot over rough bark, and then tacking or tying this to the tree. If Mr. Jay gets any, he must work hard to get it, and is prevented from carrying it away in chunks.

The brown creeper is said to have a beautiful song, but I must confess that I have never heard it. Only those fortunate enough to visit him during the nesting season in the far north have that privilege.

A hymn book in English and Eskimo has been prepared for use in Alaska.

Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D., founder of the Christian Endeavor movement, gave an address on "Progressive Endeavor," in which he told of his extensive travels and of the work that is being done by Christians in all parts of the world. He announced that next Sunday President Harding is to be taken into the Christian Endeavor alumni fellowship.

"Constructive Christian Endeavor" was the subject of an address by Rev. Frank L. Frest, field secretary of the Massachusetts union. A welcome was extended to the visiting delegates by Rev. R. L. Rice, president of the Springfield board of Aldermen. Rev. Norman L. MacQueen of the Clarendon Hill Baptist church, and Rev. F. Theodore Conlan, president of the Somerset Christian Endeavor union, also spoke words of greeting. A response Harris, who lives at 1 Salem street, is employed as a watchman in a Wadsworth building. Working 13 hours a night, seven nights a week, and keeping up 50 lbs. of steam in a boiler, Harris is in no way less fit and strong than he was before he began to take the ex-Yank.

"Three months ago," said Harris when interviewed, "I caught a bad cold which I couldn't seem to get rid of. It was a hacking cough, and gradually began to get the best of me. I couldn't take any strength from it, and before I knew it I was in a bad, run-down condition. My stomach went back on me and soon I had chronic indigestion.

"I lost all my ambition and vitality; everything seemed to go wrong, and I sure did look pretty empty. I got weaker and weaker—why sometimes I hardly had strength to get up and dress myself out of the boiler room after work. In one week I lost 7 pounds.

"Finally I got so bad I was on the point of throwing up my job. Then I heard about this Glandex Compound, a new animal gland tonic, and bought a bottle of great things everywhere. I decided to try it. Maybe I'm not dead and I did! Why, from the very first I did feel a big improvement in me. I just took right hold of me and built me up. "In on my third bottle now, and my cough has left me, my indigestion has disappeared, my strength has increased wonderfully, and I don't seem to mind hard work at all now. Glandex certainly is a great tonic, especially when you are a run-down people."

"It certainly did me a world of good, and I never get tired of recommending it to people."

From everywhere come equally remarkable reports of how Glandex Compound builds up the organs, regains health and strength. Where other tonics and medicines fail people say that Glandex brings almost unbelievable results, especially in the treatment of loss of strength, nervousness, sleeplessness, poor blood, thinness, low vitality, poor appetite, premature old age and general "run-down" conditions.

Feeds Run-Down Glands

The reason for these remarkable results, says Dr. H. C. Glandex Compound builds up run-down glands, which scientists have found to be the cause of most run-down conditions.

There is a mysterious secretion, called hormones, which is vitally necessary to the building up of the billions of muscle, brain and nerve cells in our bodies. Thus when our glands become run-down, the supply of hormones slows down and our bodies suffer as a result. Glandex helps build up the glands, thus feeding them with gland extracts taken from the glands of healthy sheep and cattle. It works on practically the same principle as our famous Glandex treatment, except that an operation is unnecessary.

If you are weak, thin, run-down, nervous, anxious, if you are suffering from a loss of vitality or premature old age it is recommended that you try Glandex Compound, which in addition contains the same gland extracts from sheep and cattle contains iron and other health-builders as well. It is recommended to bring entirely satisfactory results after a short treatment of money refunded. For sale by your druggists everywhere.—Adv.

NOMINATIONS MADE BY PRES. HARDING TODAY

WASHINGTON, April 21.—David F. Blair of Winston-Salem, N. C., was nominated today by President Harding to be commissioner of internal revenue.

Secretary Mellon announced today that no consideration had been given as yet to the appointment of a prohibition commissioner, that matter remaining as it was on March 4. Possible transfer of the prohibition unit from the treasury to the department of justice, Mr. Mellon said, would not necessarily alter plans for appointment of a new prohibition commissioner when the question was considered. Such a transfer was being considered, he said, as a part of departmental reorganization plans being worked out by the administration.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Claudius H. Huston of Tennessee was nominated today by President Harding to be assistant secretary of commerce.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Charles F. Marvin was renominated today by President Harding to be chief of the weather bureau.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Arthur F. Odlin of Florida was nominated today by President Harding to be United States judge for the district of Porto Rico.

BOSTON, April 21.—Former Senator James F. Cavanaugh of Everett served notice today on the special legislative committee investigating the conduct of members of the legislatures of 1918 and 1919 in relation to dealings in street railway stock, that in his opinion, the committee was exceeding the scope of its authority and that he would hold each member personally responsible.

Mr. Cavanaugh's statement followed the decision of the committee to overrule his objections as a private citizen to having details of his stock market transactions read publicly into the records.

Black Bass

ANGLES TO ANGLING

Cast Your Bait Deep for Battling Bass

By MORRIS ACKERMAN

America's Foremost Angler
The black bass is the game fish of the masses.

It is the only fighting fin that thrives in our centres of population. You find him in the park lakes of great cities, reservoirs, ponds, far and near, big and little.

All fair waters look alike to this wonderful fish of the people.

For this reason bass fishing has more followers than that of any, or possibly all other, game fish combined. Excepting where seasons are closed by law during the spring, the black bass is hard hunted during the whole of a year's 12 months.

In early spring fishing for this splendid fellow we often find him "bumped up with a cold" from the winter chilled waters.

It is then he must be "hand fed"; we must put within reach of that discriminating nose the live minnow, the craw fish or the lovely angle worm.

He is not looking for painted plugs or foolish feathers. He is only interested in a square meal at close range.

His sky line is the surface of the water and he is in no mood for high flying. For this reason it is far better to send down weighted minnow, "craw" or worm.

As the early bird gets the worm, likewise does the angler, with lure waiting at peep o' day, have the bulge on the bass.

Bass fishing will make you forget your worries. Dig up some tackle, a can of worms or a bucket of "minnies" and get rid of fagging appetites and sleepless nights.

WILL REPEAT THE IRISH EXILE

The announcement that the Sacred Heart school dramatic club has consented to give a second performance of "The Irish Exile" at the Lowell Opera House Sunday, May 1, afternoon and evening, will give general satisfaction and delight to the hundreds who saw the first performance and those who were unable to secure tickets at that time.

The dramatic club of the Sacred Heart school has achieved an enviable distinction in the presentation of amateur dramatics in this city. The cast is well balanced and possessed of rare ability and excellence in the parts assigned them.

A rare treat is in store for those who attend the second performance of "The Irish Exile." It is a pleasing drama that is unfolded, depicting Irish life and character in its full strength and grandeur. The scenes and incidents of the play are well thought out, and the different parts superbly acted by the different members of the cast. Irish loyalty and love of country was never more vividly displayed in any drama than is shown in "The Irish Exile."

Textile Workers Union Enjoined

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 21.—A formal decree was entered today by Presiding Justice Tanner of the superior court enjoining the Amalgamated Textile Workers of America local of Burrillville from unlawful interference with the business of the Stillwater worsted mills at Harrisville, where a strike was called early in March. The decree enjoins the respondents and any others associating, acting in concert with, aiding or abetting them, from the use of threats or violence or intimidation in any manner against any one now or hereafter employed or seeking employment of complainant.

JACK CUDAHY ENDS LIFE

Kansas City Man Pulled Shotgun Trigger With His Toes

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—John P. (Jack) Cudahy, member of the Kansas City family of packers, was found dead yesterday in his residence in the Hollywood section of Los Angeles.

The police said Cudahy apparently had killed himself by placing the muzzle of a shotgun in his mouth and pulling the trigger with his toes.

There was some delay in establishing his identity, owing to the effect of the gunshot wound.

The officers and servants at the residence finally made the definite announcement that the dead man was the well known Jack Cudahy, and that he had killed himself.

He was 43 years old, and his wife and children had lived in Pasadena and Los Angeles for several years.

His act followed his failing to negotiate a $10,000 loan with a Chicago bank. Detective Sergeant McMahon said last night.

McMahon said Mrs. Cudahy, the widow, told him her husband received a letter Tuesday from an officer of the bank informing him the loan could not be carried unless vouched for by another member of the Cudahy family. Yesterday according to McMahon, Cudahy received a telegram from the relative in question declining to vouch for the loan.

BITTER ATTACK ON GOMPERS

Cong. Underhill Charges
Leaders With Sedition—
Drop Gompers, He Says

Declares A. F. of L. Head
Was Only Man Who Had
Key to White House

NEW YORK, April 21.—Samuel Gompers was described as the only man who had a key to the White House, and the American Federation of Labor as more powerful than the government itself during the world war, by Congressman Charles T. Underhill of Massachusetts, in the course of an address yesterday afternoon at the 23d annual convention of the National Metal Trades Association at the Hotel Astor. His remarks were heartily applauded at intervals by members of the association, who compose one of the strongest forces opposed to the closed shops.

At the beginning of his address, Mr. Underhill said he wished to make a distinction between organized labor and labor, and to make a further distinction between organized labor and labor leaders. He had just been informed that newspapermen had been admitted to the meeting which ordinarily would have been a closed one. Turning to the members of the press, he said he did not care a snap of his fingers how much he was quoted.

"There is just as much heresy," he continued, "or lack of patriotism or sedition in claiming that a man who criticized the policy of President Wilson was not patriotic as in saying that a man who criticizes Sam Gompers and his gang is not friendly to labor."

Attacks Labor During War

"When I first entered political life I always gave labor the benefit of the doubt, until the time that we entered the war, but the attitude of union labor and its leaders was so sedition, so disgraceful and disrespectful at that time, that today I am from Missouri and they have got to show me."

"It has been through a lack of courage on the part of our law-makers, and of knowledge on the part of our leaders that they laid our country open to the rule of an autocrat and demagogue more unprincipled than any potentate in Europe. Had the war lasted a little longer we might have been worse off than under Wilhelm II. and his Potsdam gang for we might have had the rule of Sam Gompers and his gang."

Foster, Morrison, Duncan and Wolf were boring from within during the war, seeking to take away from our boys in France their birthright to labor and to live."

He then attacked the Federation of Labor and its leaders because he said they had spoken no word about winning the war at the time of the Buffalo convention. He said that the chief concern of that meeting of the Federation of Labor had been to strengthen itself against the return of the former service men from France at the conclusion of the war when they would be seeking millions of jobs. It had been the desire of the American Federation of Labor, he said, to make these veterans submit to its power.

Tried to Enter Mining

He then cited the case of his son who had given up his training for a certain profession to enlist in the services of his country. On returning from France after having lost time from his studies that never could be regained, this son decided to enter the mining field and he desired to start from the ground and learn the business. Consequently, he went down to West Virginia and entered a mine with a pick and shovel.

"The first requisite was that he must join the union," said Congressman Underhill. "Isn't that one of the proofs that these boys were being deprived of their right to work by Gompers and his gang of highlanders?"

He charged that further evidence of the seditious attitude of union labor

Why Dread Old Age?

It don't make much difference how old you are if you only keep in good health and are active. Many people appear older at 50 than others do at 70, to keep looking young you have got to enjoy good health, and do as little worrying as possible. Backaches, swollen joints and legs, disturbed sleep by being compelled to arise one or more times during the night are sure symptoms of kidney trouble, and should have immediate attention to avoid serious consequences. SEVEN BARKS, nature's remedy of roots and herbs, is one of the best remedies to take not only for affected kidneys, but for liver, stomach and heart troubles.

Middle-aged people realize that they cannot perform their work or move around as fast as formerly. The intestinal organs feel the effect of age and do not perform their work properly. The heart palpitates on the slightest exertion and the back aches after a day's work. The muscles and flesh get flabby, and the blood thinner than formerly. It is then you need a good tonic and bowel regulator—you cannot and a more reliable and efficient remedy for these conditions than SEVEN BARKS.

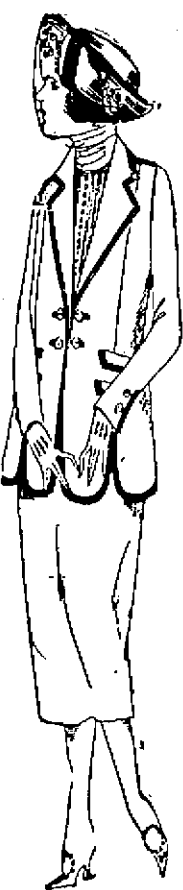

If you want to enjoy life, recover some of your youthful vigor and have the glow of health, get SEVEN BARKS of your druggist. Do not accept a substitute—adv.

REDUCE THOSE DANGEROUS SWOLLEN VEINS

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins but bunches to become normal, but also reduces swollen, enlarged glands and veins.

Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moene's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces last a long time and furthermore it is wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep an enlarging. Often they burst and cause pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will be seen at once. It comes in sample, receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. ### MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

"Godless Men," a Reginald Barker production with an all-star cast, telling a story in which men meet their souls face to face and yet urge themselves on to acts of horror, is the feature attraction at the Merrimack

Square theatre for the week-end.

"Godless Men" is an entirely different story of the high seas. There never was a production containing the same unexpected happenings and boasting so absorbing a plot. The other big feature of the current program, "The Song of a Soul," starring popular Vivian Martin, presents Miss

Martin in the most ambitious role of her screen career. She plays the blind heroine of the production, a role calling for sincerity and intelligence far beyond the requirements of the average conventional performance. A comedy and the International News round out the bill.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

It is doubtful if there is a woman in Lowell today who will not appreciate the very fine point of Amy Home-which Jean Adair Co. are giving at the B. F. Keith theatre this week.

It deals with a family disrupted during the house-cleaning period. And it is splendidly played by Miss Adair and her supporting company. Blackface

Eddie Ross, in a monolog, is nothing if not a scream-maker. His work is really worth while. It is guaranteed cure for the spring lassitude.

The Chums stage a singing act that has merit and Rolfs & Royce, the dancers, do a speedy turn. The Deardclaim "Pleasure Seekers" even more fascinating. Miss Hammerstein's wonderful ability to reflect sweet, demure simplicity, was never better exemplified than in this offering. Plan to see it during one of the performance and remember also that it runs only three days. The second feature on the bill is one of Jack London's stories called

"The Little Fool" and an all-star cast, headed by Milton Sills is engaged in its interpretation. Anything that London wrote during his varied career, has always been sufficiently interesting to attract more than ordinary attention, and "The Little Fool," adapted from the story, "The Little Lady of the Big House" is said to have wonderfully tense situations and a gripping story.

IRISH PROTESTANTS

TELL OF CONDITIONS

(From the New York World)

Thomas Spring-Rice, first cousin of the former ambassador to America from Great Britain; Lord Montagu, Prof.

D. Culverwell, senior dean of Dublin university, and Alice Wilson, a Belfast capitalist, all Protestants, have sent cable messages to the American relief committee for Ireland "protesting against cruel misrepresentations of the situation in Ireland and urging the need of relief and urging the committee to continue its good work. In the message, made public yesterday, Lord Montagu says:

"I regret to see doubts thrown on the existence of distress and devastation caused by the recent trouble in Ireland, which your committee seeks to remedy. As a Protestant of the landlord class, having lived all my life on good terms with my Catholic tenants and neighbors, I can testify personally to the burning in this immediate locality of one co-operative creamery, one co-operative shop, one workmen's club and several shops, and the murder of an old-age pensioner."

Mr. Wilson makes his plea more eloquent, contending that Ireland would be in no need of help from America if she were permitted to help herself.

"Our case is bad enough these days, in all conscience, without being underestimated. Men have been executed for political offenses. They are hanging men and women for the wearing of the green. Once more very many innocent persons have suffered in mind, body and estate without offense given or trial afforded."

Lord Culverwell, declaring that misrepresentation of the facts concerning Irish distress is cruel under the circumstances, says:

"Understanding that statements have been cable to America that there is no distress in Ireland such as would call for relief by your committee, I desire to say that these statements are not only unfounded but, considering the forces of the crown and those of the Irish republican army there has been widespread damage which has disrupted the economic life of the country."

"I accept as reasonable the estimate of this damage cable to you by Sir

Francis, and I regard it as of the greatest importance that speedy measures of reconstruction should be taken. Otherwise the present grievous distress will be greatly aggravated in the near future."

Although long chiffon blouses are still worn, shorter ones are becoming more popular.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE COMMITTEE

At the meeting of the executive committee in charge of the Salvation

Army drive which starts May 9 and continues for one week, in an effort to raise $15,000, Mr. Dudley L. Page was elected chairman. It will be remembered that Mr. Page was chairman of the committee which so successfully conducted last year's campaign when the quota was $20,000 and the sum of $23,000 was raised.

The other officers elected, at this meeting, were: Vice chairman, L. E.

Studley; secretary, George F. Wells;

treasurer, Julian B. Keyes. The committee feels confident that they can raise the $15,000 as the people of Lowell have always recognized the good influence of the Salvation Army in the community and there is no question but what everyone will be glad to render their best efforts in putting this campaign over the top.

WHAT OF THE FISHWAY?

Shall we or shall we not have a fishway?

That is a question that for some time past has greatly agitated certain members of the Lowell Fish and Game association.

This body of citizens has interested itself in promoting legitimate sport and among other things, it has brought the Massachusetts Fish and Game commission to enforce the law that provides for open highways in the Merrimack river to permit the fish to pass upward in the spawning season.

Originally, the fishing rights in the Merrimack had an important commercial value and were duly protected by the state as the following statute will show:

"Section 3—An act to regulate the catching of salmon, shad and alewives, and to prevent obstruction in the Merrimack river and in other rivers and streams running into the same within this Commonwealth.

"Be it further enacted that if any person or persons shall erect or obstruct or incur obstruction or place impediments in or across the said Merrimack river or any of the rivers or streams running into the same, or continue such as are already erected so as to prevent the free passage of the said fish up and down said river and streams, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay a fine of twenty pounds sterling."—Acts of 1909, Page 272.

A few years after the passage of that act, the Locks and Canals Company was incorporated and has remained an active body ever since with a special interest in water power, but apparently with little or no regard for the fishing industry of the Merrimack river once so valuable.

When this company built its dams and locks, it was with the special stipulation that fishways would be built to permit the migration of the fish from the sea in the spawning season. Those fishways served the purpose admirably while properly maintained and were maintained for fully a hundred years after the enactment of the law quoted above. It was in 1898 that the fishway at Lawrence was abandoned, and of course when that was closed, it was useless to maintain one at Lowell. Hence the fishway at Pawtucket Falls was also neglected and finally forgotten, except by those who are particularly interested in the necessity of restoring the fishways and giving the fish a chance to ascend our noble river.

The fishway at Lawrence has been rebuilt, but Lowell has not been successful in its efforts to move the Fish and Game commission to do anything practical. Indeed, most of the members feel that this official body is disposed to treat the project as a joke; but the agitation is not going to be suppressed or sidetracked by the dilatory tactics of the commission. At every meeting of the Fish and Game association there is a new discussion of this fishway business; and it is claimed that the commission in justice to the people should have the fishways restored without delay.

Some of the objectors say that fish cannot live in the river because of contamination from sewage and mill scum; but if the people of Lawrence can drink Merrimack river water without any injurious results, we do not see any ground for claiming that it would kill the salmon, the shad and the alewives.

We want to see the fishway at Pawtucket dam; and that realized, we will take care of the fish afterwards. There is a question of popular rights involved that cannot be swept aside by the procrastination of any antipathetic commission.

CENTRAL AMERICAN QUARREL

It would seem that we are soon to have triple and possibly other alliances of various kinds on our own continent, some of them having a hellacious split inversely proportional to their size. The United States is bound by treaty obligations to safeguard the integrity of Panama, Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala are pledged to support Costa Rica in her contention against Panama, so that we are likely to be in grips with another bunch of "Central powers."

It is time that the American states from Canada to Patagonia come to an understanding for their common protection. While we are pledged to maintain the Monroe Doctrine in all its bearings, some of the South American countries are opposed to any overlordship by Uncle Sam. To make the Monroe Doctrine thoroughly effective, it must be endorsed, approved, adopted and defended by all the independent states on the continent and enforced by their common consent and united action.

Thus far it seems that the United States stands alone on this continent for the Monroe Doctrine while the very powers that owe their safety and their very existence to its enforcement, are shortsighted enough to question the motives of the United States and even to attribute to our government a desire for territorial aggrandizement. This Central American squabble between Panama and Costa Rica serves to accentuate the delinquency of the position we have assumed as the guardian, the police officer and the sheriff for the various smaller states south of us on this continent. Mexico seems to be actively opposed to our assumption of this power and in emergency would call in the aid of foreign nations to which we are opposed. That is a dangerous policy for Mexico to pursue and one that might easily prove her undoing.

As for the smaller powers involved in the scrap with Panama, they resort in the manner in which the United States raised up the new republic. Our delay in settling the Colombian claim to compensation has not helped to improve their feeling towards us. This easily may be embroiled in the in-

Another Dog Yarn

Here is another story which the collector of true dog yarns might like to add to his list. A gentleman had a dog whose eyes were remarkably different in size. Whenever a stranger came to the house the dog played a "trick" on him. He would first get fed at one side of the guest and then go around the table to his other side and pretend to be another dog.

One on Mr. Bully

Mr. Bully was cross-examining a down-trodden witness.

"Now, sir," he thundered, "you have stated under oath that this man had the appearance of a gentleman! Please tell the jury how a gentleman looks in your estimation!"

"Well, er a gentleman looks like—er—er—er," stammered the poor confounded witness.

With unmerciful sarcasm the counsel plunged to the attack again.

"I don't want any of your 'ers,' and remember you are on oath! Can you see anybody in the court who looks like a gentleman?"

The witness' eyes for the first time showed anger, and he blurted out:

"Stand out of the way and then perhaps I can. You're not transparent!"

Bill's He's Eighteen

Barker, who is doomed to be a life-long lookkeeper, hands me a clipping and says, "Bill, you always seem to be trying for something. The lksome routine of drab business life falls upon you. This ad gives you a shot at a $200 prize for a 'dog'."

It was from a concern that has started a new tooth paste and they offered a prize of 200 berries for a snappy limerick that should make a guy who hates tooth paste bust into the nearest drug store and demand a tube of Boggett's. I dashed off the ensuing emanation out of a clear sky:

When your teeth look kind of dowdy,
And you want to make 'em shine, dog-gone it,
Why, slap a silver quarter
Across the drug store counter

And just say to the salesman in charge, "Boggett."

Pretty jazzy, what? Well, I sent it in on the firm's stationery and what with important conferences with the elevator man and the fireman of the building, I forgot all about it.

Afternoon the buzzer which means I am a part of the boss's life, rang and I went in to see what he wanted.

"Bill," he says, "are you aware what this firm sells?"

"Yes, sir," I answers, "toilet goods and so forth."

"Well, why are you writing masterpieces of poetry for rival concerns then?" he growled. "A bird by the name of Boggett is kidding the life out of me because he has been sent a poem advertising his new tooth paste by you. Henceforth please confine your efforts, both commercial and literary, to this firm."

"Yes, sir," I says. "I'll write you a poem tonight."

"Get out," he hollers and to humor him I got.

Told Zedie that I am a poet and she went completely nutty over me. Her mother, which is foreign talk for me, has allowed me to call again if I wear a wrist watch where I can see it.

Cleared for Yip

(When a ship sails on a long voyage for new adventures, the frequent "clears for Yip")

I want to make a voyage on a ship that's cleared for Yip.

With an able-bodied crew of sailor men Who will take a chance on sailing any place upon the map.

And who don't intend to hurry back again For to cruise and keep on cruising by a course that's ours for choosing.

Or to anchor where the gentle rippler lay In some tropic harbor hazy is a dream to set me crazy.

And I want to pack my kit and clear for Yip.

I have had enough of Hivers with a fixed and meted track Which they cover to the minute by the clock.

Put me on a dingy freighter, with a rusty, battered stack That is lying at some weather-beaten dock.

I would rather not be knowing just the port that she is going And for speed I do not really give a rap.

Just to plod across the ocean is the pace to suit my notion Just to plod the hawseers in and clear for Yip.

Is she seeking hidden treasure or a load of frozen loot?

As she makes her heavy way across the tides?

Will she fight for nearly plunder by a fleet of faster craft?

Or bring back a load of guano and of hides?

She may carry what she pleases, from the nearest of frozen hides.

If she'll only sail regardless round the map.

If she'll only sort of go where it's a little milder from nowhence.

If she'll only take me on and clear for Yip.

SECOND-HAND CLOTHING

Goodwill Industries Gets Permission From License Board to Operate Store

In spite of strenuous opposition by representatives of various local organizations, the Lowell Goodwill Industries, Inc., received permission last evening from the license board to operate a second-hand clothing store in a room of the Ministry-at-Large Free church, on Middlesex street. Protesting that the enterprise was an unsuitable one for premises where divine services are held, and also invoking sanitary grounds, members of the Free church congregation, together with speakers from sundry social and fraternal bodies which utilize the church for the purpose of holding gatherings, religious and otherwise, strongly urged that a license be refused. On the other hand there was the evidence of Henry H. Harris, principal of the high school, and Rev. Leslie C. Boies, both of these proponents of the petition for a license stressed the humanitarian aims which inspire the activities of the Goodwill Industries, and answered the arguments relative to unsanitary conditions by stating that all clothing would be thoroughly fumigated before being allowed in the church structure.

After a conference in private, the commissioners announced their decision to permit the industries to open during the present month, although a renewal will have to be sought May 1, in accordance with the city ordinance.

"Jockey" Complaint

The commissioners were also occupied for some time in the course of the meeting, with the case of Peter Coury, proprietor of a Thorndike street variety store. Officers Kivlan and O'Sullivan, of the liquor squad, appeared to lodge complaint against Coury for the sale of Jamaica ginger, together with gin, gin, gin, together with gin, gin, gin.

On the evening of April 2, to a representative of the police. They mentioned that Judge Enright fined Coury $100 when he came before the police court to answer to a charge of illegal sale, and they indicated the desirability of stopping the business done locally in Jamaica ginger as dangerous for other than medicinal purposes.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Siefert Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pottsville, Pa.—"I suffered with female trouble for four or five years and was very irregular. I was not fit to do my work at times and took medicine from a doctor and got no benefit. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and took it and got all right. I gained twenty pounds or more and am now able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. SARAH SIEFERT, 313 W. Fourth Street, Pottsville, Pa.

The everyday life of many housewives is a continual struggle with weakness and pain. There is nothing more wearing than the ceaseless round of household duties and they become doubly hard when some female trouble makes every bone and muscle ache, and nerves all on edge.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Siefert did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Candidates for Irish Parliament

DUBLIN, April 21.—Official lists of candidates for the north of Ireland parliament which has been created by the Irish act, put into operation April 19, have been completed. There are 42 unionists, 14 nationalists and 19 Sinn Fein candidates and from them will be elected the occupants of the 62 seats. Joseph Devlin has been chosen for the West Belfast—County Antrim—County Armagh constituency, but in the event of his election is pledged to ignore the summons to attend meetings. It may sound contradictory, but Donegal, the most northern county of Ireland, has been the first to select a candidate for the south of Ireland parliament. He is Major R. L. Moore, master of the Londonderry Orangemen and he is the unionist nominee.

May Be Driver Of "Death Wagon"

SCRANTON, Pa., April 21.—The discovery that paperweights similar to those used in the bomb that caused the Wall street explosion last September are manufactured by a Scranton concern, increased interest today in the case of Tito Ligi, who is under arrest here on a technical charge of evading the selective service act. In addition, detectives say they have found anarchistic literature in the house where he lived. Investigators say that Ligi answers the description of the missing owner of the horse which drew a cart left in front of the Morgan building just before the explosion.

Disorders Spreading in Italy

ROME, April 21.—Disorders in which extreme nationalists and communists have been engaged, and which have been, for the most part, confined to northern central Italy, have spread to the southern provinces, according to the Epoch. Strikes called by socialists in cities where fighting has taken place in the past fortnight, are reported to be still in progress.

RATIFY TREATY WITH COLOMBIA

Senate Votes 69 to 19 to Pay That Country $25,000,000

Regarded as Important Victory for Harding Administration

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Expressions of gratification were general today in administration circles over what was regarded as a significant test of senate support for administration foreign policies in that body's ratification of the long-pending Colombian treaty. At the close of a final session of heated debate, the treaty which grew out of the partitioning of Panama, and provides for payment by the United States of $25,000,000 to the South American republic, was ratified with a margin, 11 votes over the necessary two-thirds majority, 15 republicans and four democrats opposing ratification. The vote was 69 to 19, in rejecting all amendments to the pact, the senate turned down proposals of Senators Poindexter, republican, Washington, and Wadsworth, republican, New York, to restrict the rights of Colombia under the treaty as to use of the Panama canal, and another amendment offered by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, to insert a clause declaring the treaty was not to be construed as implying the United States had aided in the Panamanian revolt. Other amendments defeated included that of Senator Ransdell, democrat, Louisiana, proposing an alliance with Colombia and the cession by that country to the United States of several islands.

Senator Lodge, who joined in an adverse report in 1917, led the fight for ratification. His change, along with that of other republican senators, from opposition to the original treaty to advocacy of the amended pact, was one of the points of attack by the progressives.

With the senate in a lull today, after clearing its program of the first major business of the extra session, the house was prepared to resume debate on the immigration restriction bill with probability of reaching a final vote before adjournment.

Probably the next business to come before the senate, the Knox peace resolution was to be taken up today by the foreign relations committee. Whether the committee planned to report the resolution out today, however, remained in doubt.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

CASE IS SETTLED OUT OF COURT

An agreement of judgment has been entered into by the parties concerned in the case of James C. Donovan vs. the City of Lowell, an action in which Mr. Donovan sought to recover for damage to his property in Market street following the bursting of a city water main several years ago. The judgment is in favor of the city and against the Lowell Electric Light corporation. When the case was heard by an auditor, the city contended that the water pipe in question was broken through the negligence of the Electric Light corporation. Tech auditor who sat on the case, Gilbert A. A. Pevey, found for the city, but his finding was never confirmed and the case was slated to be placed on the jury trial list. In the meantime, however, an agreement has been reached and the Electric Light corporation has paid judgment of approximately $1000.

$100,000,000 To Aid Cattle Producers

CHICAGO, April 21.—Legislation directing the secretary of the treasury to turn over $100,000,000 of the profits of the Federal Reserve bank to Federal Land banks, to be loaned by the latter institutions on stock cattle for the purpose of assisting cattle producers, has been recommended as a part of the congressional program by W. P. G. Harding, governor of the Federal Reserve board, according to a statement today by Everett C. Brown, president of the National Livestock exchange.

Such legislation, in the opinion of Mr. Brown, would enable a multitude of livestock men who might otherwise have been forced out of the business to continue production. Consumers also should receive a benefit from the increase in production thus made possible, the statement declared.

SCENES IN NORMAN FIELDS WHERE RUSH IMPENDS

TAKE AIRPLANES TO THE OIL FIELDS

EDMONTON, Alberta, April 21.—Some of the folks who are planning to join the stampede into the newly discovered oil country that lies on the Arctic circle in northern Canada have a hairy idea of the hardships such a journey entails.

The man from New York state, for example, who wired railroad officials here to reserve sleeping car accommodations for him to Fort Norman will be disappointed.

For the only method by which he can cover the 1500-mile stretch to the oil district centering about Norman will be an arduous journey of weeks by river boat, a longer and more dangerous trek by wagon, or by airplane.

Alas, for the first time in history, will be used in the rush for claims. The Imperial Oil company has two planes already on the job, and in May will begin the job of conveying men and surveying instruments across the hundreds of miles of wilderness. These will be for company employees only, but several other companies are being formed for carrying passengers. The fare will be $1000 for the round trip. Steamer fare is $300.

Although navigation of ice-locked rivers and lakes will not open until late in May, the first steamer loads of passengers and freight are now being

FRANCE TO USE RIVERS TO MAKE ELECTRICITY

PARIS, April 21.—Plans now in course of preparation by the French government contemplate the development of a yearly average of 4,000,000 horse-power by 1934 through the utilization of the rivers of the country for the manufacture of electricity.

The creation of energy for the electrification of the railways and the big industries of France has received tremendous impetus since the armistice. Reports just completed show that within the last three years 450,000,000 francs have been invested in 49 power plants throughout France by French investors.

The recent visit of President Millerand to the valley of the Rhone revived interest in the famous Rhone water power project, plans for which have been completed and now are before the senate for ratification. The chamber of deputies approved the scheme in October 1919.

The Rhone project, as it is known in Europe, is one of the most comprehensive water-power developments ever conceived and involves the expenditure of 3,000,000,000 francs. No fewer than 20 lesser projects have been launched in France but the Rhone is further advanced than the others.

It has been estimated that the Rhone scheme, together with the other big projects, would effect an annual saving of 5,000,000 tons of coal, thus diverting this to other purposes and materially reducing the importation of coal by France.

The Rhone plan would make navigable between 400 and 500 kilometers of that river, would reclaim 650,000 acres of ground now useless, and probably place at the door of Paris electricity at a price within the reach of everyone.

The government plans to make the Rhone, as well as all the other projects, a "creation of the people" through the issuance of six per cent. non-taxable bonds, the proceeds to be used in construction. The finance committee of the senate now has the matter before it, but because of the financial depression and the already great burdens on the French treasury, the actual construction probably will not begin for several years.

The majority of the plants for hydro-electric development concern the rivers Rhone, Garonne, Rhine and Loire.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE MEETING

The League of Catholic Women will hold its regular monthly meeting in Associate hall at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. The speaker of the occasion will be Mrs. Francis Slattery, head of the league in the archdiocese of Boston, who will speak on "Catholic Organizations." Preceding the lecture will be the second oratorio attempted by the league choral club assisted by singers from the choir of the various Catholic churches of the city. This time "The Holy City" will be sung with Mrs. Joseph W. Green leading. The singers will be accompanied by the league orchestra directed by Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell and Miss Grace Gilday Donohue, harpist. The oratorio will be under the general direction of Mrs. John T. Donohue. Miss Alice T. Lee, the president, will preside.

NEW TIME EFFECTIVE SUNDAY MORNING

Daylight saving will go into effect at 2 o'clock next Sunday morning to continue until 3 a. m. on the last Sunday in September. The change in time will be effective throughout Massachusetts in accordance with chapter 145 of the Acts of 1921 and Lowell people are beginning to make preparations accordingly.

The period of daylight saving has been considerably shortened by the new law which amended the law previously in vogue. Last year the daylight saving period continued from the last Sunday in March to the last Sunday in October, but this year a month is cut off at either end.

Most of the Lowell churches will hold their services in conformity to the new time next Sunday and at the services last Sunday members of the various congregations were requested to turn forward their clocks and watches one hour before retiring Saturday night. The street railway company will observe the new time beginning Sunday morning. During the daylight saving period Massachusetts standard time will be one hour in advance of eastern standard time.

About the only opportunity for misunderstanding which the new order of things will bring about will be the time of arrival and departure of trains. According to F. W. Brown, general passenger agent of the Boston & Maine in this city, the railroad will continue to operate by eastern standard or old time. Clocks in the stations and the watches of employees will be according to the old time. However, the leaving and arriving time of some trains will be changed while others will remain unchanged. A new timetable which will become effective Sunday will be issued in a day or two and the only safe guide for passengers will be one of these tables. There is no set rule which can be printed to assist travelers because of the lack of uniformity in the policy of the road in changing the schedules. The difficulty in establishing any set rule is caused by the fact that New Hampshire will continue to observe the old time and many trains ply between Lowell and that state.

The clock in city hall tower will be pushed forward an hour late Saturday night and those in charge of other public clocks about the city will undoubtedly make the change at that time or early Sunday morning. The safest way for the individual to comply with the new time is to set his watch or clock ahead one hour before he retires Saturday night and if he is to do any railroad traveling, to acquire a new timetable by that time.

The sale is designed to dispose of unclaimed packages now in the possession of the Manchester & Concord and Boston & Lowell Express companies. The auction will take place in the building formerly occupied by the Arlington hotel.

ENORMOUS PROFITS BY GERMAN INDUSTRIES

DUESSELDORF, April 21.—Enormous and still increasing profits compared with those made in 1914 are being made in the German coal, iron, machinery, textile, paper, glass and electrical industries, according to an article in Duesseldorfer Lokal Zeitung.

The paper quotes the reports of numerous companies, among them being one manufacturing copper and brass tubing and plate at Duisburg, which paid a dividend of 24 percent and a bonus of 20 percent. Its share which were quoted in Berlin at 15 at the end of 1919 are now 530.

A 12 percent dividend declared by the Kammermann Spinning Works of Duesseldorf was only ten percent of the profits earned, says the German newspaper. In the ten years previous this company had regularly declared a dividend of only eight percent.

A similar company declared in 1920 a dividend of 40 percent, as compared with one of 10 percent in the three preceding years. The writer of the article points out that but for the evidence of such figures Germany could more effectively have resisted the demands of her opponents that she make full reparation to the allies.

HERE IS YOUR HUSBAND

What is Left of Him— When the Day's Work is Over

Why is it that many a man is struggling, toiling, trying to get ahead but at the end of each day, he is practically a physical wreck, while another man does as much or more work; and makes ten times more money and comes home to his family smiling, full of life and "feeling bully?"

This difference in men may be due solely to the difference in their blood. Today about one person out of every three is said to suffer more or less from the great debilitating weakness brought on by malnutrition or lack of sufficient nourishment; which is caused not by lack of food but often by lack of sufficient organic iron in the blood to enable us to get the full strength out of our food.

Food is worth nothing unless you get the strength and nourishment out of it. In fact it often happens that the more you eat the more you starve as your digestive organs are unable to handle much food, when your blood lacks iron and you often think you have stomach trouble or other ailments when it isn't that at all—simply lack of iron and take organic iron.

Iron is the master principle of the blood and blood is life. It is the organic iron in your blood that carries the oxygen that feeds the organs and removes the poisonous wastes that would otherwise accumulate in your body cells. Without iron your brain gets no oxygen. Without plenty of rich red blood and oxygen, your brain becomes dull and heavy; it cannot think right; you make bad decisions; do foolish things; your intellect is money and get along as he should—perhaps poor; your memory often fails—no matter if it isn't his fault at all. He has the brain.

So a woman should not blame her husband too much if he is nervous, tired and worn out, at the end of a day, or if he doesn't make the best of his life. He has the brain.

When, as a result of iron starvation, you get up feeling tired in the morning, when you find yourself nervous, irritable and easily upset, when you can no longer do your day's work without being all fagged out at night, or have pains across the back and your face looks pale and drawn do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but take some organic iron like NUXATED IRON at once to help enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out, exhausted nerves. Organic Nuxated Iron increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, tired, worn-out, nervous people often in two weeks' time. It's like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples.

It will not blacken or injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. It is entirely different from ordinary metallic iron which people usually take and which is made merely by the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Nuxated Iron comes in only one size package and the name is never abbreviated. Unless the full word "Nuxated" is on the wrapper and the letters N. I. on every tablet it is NOT genuine Nuxated Iron. Beware of substitutes. Nuxated Iron comes only in tablet and never in liquid form. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

THE DAY'S WORK

NUXATED IRON ENRICHES THE BLOOD—GIVES YOU NEW STRENGTH AND ENERGY.

This new way gets your clothes out hours earlier

MONDAY morning just started and your washing all done! Snowy white, immaculately clean clothes flapping on the line, getting the early morning sun. And the whole day before you!

You think it sounds impossible. But just wash your clothes the new way—the Rinso way.

Rinso is the new form of soap for the family washing. It comes in fine granules, so high in cleansing value that they loosen all the dirt while the clothes are soaking.

You put the clothes at night into Rinso suds and forget them. In the morning you rinse thoroughly and the dirt is gone. Only the worst spots need a light rubbing in your hands. Your clothes soak as safely in Rinso suds as in water alone. There is nothing to injure them. For Rinso is so pure it does not even redden the hands.

Wash your clothes the easy Rinso way this very next Monday. You will never again be willing to go back to the old way of rubbing them clean.

Rinso softens hard water. For hard water make an increased amount of the "soap liquid" according to directions on the package and continue adding this to your tub of cold water until you have a good rich suds.

Your grocer and the department stores have Rinso. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

GOOD BASEBALL

Lowell High School Meets Phillips-Andover Team

Displaying mid-season form in its second game of the year, Lowell high school baseball team played 12 innings of excellent ball with Phillips Andover on the Mustang campus yesterday afternoon and when darkness brought an end to hostilities, the score stood at a 7-1 tie.

Lowell played superior ball at every stage of the game with the possible exception of the seventh inning. A real indication of the comparative strength of the two teams may be gained from the fact that Lowell got 13 hits while opponents drew five. However, the breaks went the other way and Lowell had to be content with a tie game.

In the seventh inning Lowell was leading, 7 to 2, and was all set for a victory. But Andover succeeded in sending five men over the counting board as the result of a combination of errors, passes and a couple of hits, thus evening matters. Long, who had pitched good ball for Lowell up to this point, was benched and Ordway finished the game. There was no excitement after the seventh. The lineup:

Lowell high: O'Hare if, Condon 2b, Cahill cf, Gibson rf, Linton ss, Williams, B. McDaniels lb, Conley 3b, Ordway p.

Lowell Fans to Have Plenty of Baseball for Next Few Months

Despite the absence of professional league baseball, Lowell should have one of its best seasons of the great American sport in years this summer. The preliminary plans for the launching of the season and the number of teams which are looking for games may be taken as criteria.

Rarely has there been such great early season interest, both in amateur and semi-pro circles, as there has been evidenced so far this spring. Organization after organization has made known its intention of putting a nine in the field and once the weather man begins to send a little heat sizzling through the spring early the sound of ball and bat will again be heard on Lowell parks and commons and even from the debris of the dump or the deserted field will come shouts of exultation when a close game is broken up in the final lining by a lucky Texas leaguer or because some youthful Ty Cobb has muffed an easy fly and allowed the winning run to score.

Organizing the Youngsters

An idea of just what interest the younger ball players of the Spindlin City are taking in the game this season may be gained from a perusal of The Sun's amateur baseball column. From all parts of the city come challenges from 11, 12, 13 and anywhere up to 17 and 18-year-old players looking for games. All the pent-up enthusiasm which has accumulated during the winter months is beginning to break forth on the diamond in the contest of all sports, the grand old game that numbers young and old men and women, the rich and the poor, the intellectual and the dullard, the invalid and the boisterous youth among its vast army of enthusiasts and followers. And no city has a greater proportionate number of fans than this little Lowell, Massachusetts.

While there are hundreds of youngsters who will play ball this summer without any other object in view than winning each game as they go along, other Lowell boys will play on organized teams in organized leagues under proper supervision. The Lowell school department must be given credit for fostering proper supervision of the game here in Lowell for practically every youngster of school age will have a chance to play under proper auspices.

In the grammar schools Maj. Walter R. Jeyes, director of physical instruction, has organized a league, mapped out a schedule and even arranged for a "post-season series" for the league championship. Twelve teams have been entered in the league and on May 2 the strenuous battle for supremacy will begin, not to end until the middle of June when the "penultimate" series will take place.

High School Teams

At the high school the usual varsity squad is being rounded into shape under the competent direction of Coach Joe Donahue while this year interclass teams are being organized by Donald MacIntyre, director of physical instruction for boys at the school. Schedule has been mapped out and several games have already been played. This interclass competition gives practically every boy at the high school, no matter what his age or experience, a chance to try out for his class team and the zest of sport and the desire to win give the students an incentive for physical exertion that would be entirely missing were some routine form of uninteresting exercise prescribed.

The varsity squad can be made up only of those who are students at the school and in the years to come it should have well trained, experienced material to pick from each spring instead of a few veterans and many "green" aspirants. If for no other reason, the developing of class teams at the school is commendable because of the wealth of material it will bring forth and train.

The 1921 squad has won its first game, defeating Townsend high on Patriots day by a substantial score. It has a hard schedule this year, but Coach Donahue is confident of bagging the squad over the top with a long list of victories.

The Textile School

The Textile school squad is also on its toes this year and although it hasn't the advantage of the high school in having many veterans return to its fold, nevertheless, it displayed considerable class in its first game with Andover last Saturday. Last year's team put forth in years and the students are howling for a repetition of the good work of the 1920 squad.

Twilight League Starting

Then there is the Twilight league, once more beginning to show signs of life. This organization which really took the place of professional baseball last summer, will have a few new faces this year and some of the old familiar ones will be missing, notably the Knights of Columbus team. The league this year will include the C.M.A.C., the Highland Daylights, the South Ends, Broadways, Wilemies and Central-illies, an organization representative of practically every section of the city. Interest should be widespread this year if the boys put up any kind of baseball and the crowds which lined the slopes of the South common summer evenings last year will undoubtedly be in evidence again this summer. The league will get under way early in May.

The City League

A close rival of the Twilight league will be the City league, composed of six teams of players under 19 years of age. This league will get under way Saturday and will continue until May 15.

The league making up the organization include the Celtics, Cardinals, Oak-leaves, St. Columba's, Sharps Nobles and the Lullies.

Firemen to Play

The two shifts of firemen here will each be represented by a team and the contest which was attached to the playing of these outfalls last year. An attempt was made to organize a Merrimack team but it fell through owing to the possibility of conflict between the two shifts. However, the local firefighters will meet strong teams from neighboring cities and there will undoubtedly be a post-season series arranged between the two shifts if the proper arrangements can be made.

More Grounds Needed

All in all, Lowell should have one of its best seasons in years. It is regrettable that the first baseball season has not officially come under the control of the city so that a real ball park could be built near the center of the city. But the same old story is told again every spring for several years is again to be rehearsed. The authorities of Lowell have been talking and re-planning and conferring to no avail. No determined course of action has been assumed by anyone and as a result the ball might be the city's leading baseball stadium is still nothing but the remains of a dump. True, employees of the Massachusetts and Boston have been working on a plan to build a ball park, but they seem little real excuse why the first street stadium is not a reality by this time.

Another playground which the city might well acquire, even though financial obstacles seem to hinder the project, is Washington park. Here is another reservation in a congested district which would be more than appreciated if properly developed. The city is under the control of the city are the North and South commons, where two games may be played simultaneously,

LOWELL MANUFACTURERS BASEBALL LEAGUE

A baseball league to be known as the Lowell Manufacturers' league and composed of operatives of the various local textile mills has recently been formed and it is expected the first game in a series to be played in the course of the summer, will take place Saturday, May 14. The league was started by the members and officers of the Massachusetts Mills Athletic association, and is now composed of seven teams with another to be added to the list later.

The teams are as follows: Massachusetts, Hoot, Merrimack, Hamilton, Waltham, Saco-Lowell and Appleton. It is expected that 21 games will be played in the course of the summer months, five of which will be twilight games. The Merrimack team has secured the use of the Lakeview avenue grounds while the Massachusetts, Hoot and Hamilton will cross bats on the First street oval. The Waterhead and the Appleton will play their games on the grounds under consideration.

The league committee consists of three representatives from each team: the officers being Richard Potter, Massachusetts, chairman, and Lewis J. Matthews, Hamilton, secretary. At the next meeting of the league a committee on rules will be appointed, while another committee of seven, one from each team, will be appointed to settle any and all disputes that may arise in the course of the season. According to present arrangements, each team will be composed of 15 men, and each team will pay its own expenses and will furnish an equal number of ball-bats. The Massachusetts Cotton mill has supplied its team with fifty uniforms,

CONTEST FOR FISHING VESSEL CHAMPIONSHIP

GLOUCESTER, April 21.—The desire of Gloucester, Va., to contest for the international fishing vessel championship with Boston, Gloucester and Hallowell, N. S., was announced in a letter today. Gloucester, Va., made application for the conditional entry of a fishing vessel to be named Norfolk, the plans of which have already been drawn. The committee is asked to consider the advisability of waiving the time clause which stipulated that a vessel must sail for the fisheries by April 30, in order to qualify. As outlined in the letter, Gloucester, Va., would carry 145 feet overall, 130 foot waterline, a beam of 24 feet nine inches, a draught of 15.5 and a sail area of 10,000 square feet. If the entry were permitted, it was said, the schooner could be built in time to fish four months before the elimination races next fall.

HE'S AN ANARCHIST

But Denies He Had Any Connection With Wall Street Explosion

Detectives and Federal Agents at Scranton, Pa., to Investigate Case

SCRANTON, Pa., April 21.—Tito Ligli, arrested here on suspicion of complicity in the Wall Street explosion of last September, admits he is an anarchist, but denies he had any connection with the blast, according to the police.

Detective Thomas Martin, of New York was here today investigating the case with federal agents. Other New York detectives are expected to arrive late today.

The police say an investigation of the surroundings of the house where Ligli lived revealed a trap door outside the building that led to abandoned mine workings. In this place, the police said, they found anarchist literature and also evidence leading them to believe the spot might have been used for the purpose of making explosives.

Authorities also said a photograph of Ligli resembled the man said to have driven the vehicle on which the explosion occurred.

The local authorities have traced Ligli's movements during the last few years with the exception of the period around the time of the explosion. Until about three years ago he lived in the Lackawanna valley north of Scranton.

Later he worked in the anthracite mines south of Wilkesbarre until last August. From that time until Nov. 2 when he became a waiter in a local restaurant, the police have no record of him.

Since November, Ligli has been constantly watched by local detectives who say they gathered enough information about him to warrant the arrest. He is technically charged with evading the draft law. He has retained counsel.

Calls for Bids

Bids for one contract of cement to be delivered as directed by the commission of streets and highways will be received at the office of the purchasing agent up to 11 o'clock next Saturday.

This is in accordance with the decision of Purchasing Agent Foye to buy cement this season in small quantities as needed, rather than contract for the entire season's supply at one time.

B. & A. CHANGES SCHEDULES

BOSTON, April 21.—The Boston & Albany railroad today announced a change in train schedules effective Sunday, April 24. No trains will be discontinued. All trains will operate on eastern standard time, but will be scheduled one hour earlier to conform with daylight saving changes, with certain exceptions in the case of through passenger trains between Boston and Albany.

WANTS ARKANSAS TO KEEP RELIEF

DUBLIN, April 21.—Lord Mayor O'Neill of Dublin, who is chairman of the Irish White Cross, today sent a message to Governor McNamee of Arkansas expressing sympathy for the loss of life and property incurred through the tornado of last week.

Mayor O'Neill suggested that the people of Arkansas engaged in the campaign to relieve the distress in Ireland should, in view of the calamity, direct the contribution for Irish relief to the victims of the tornado.

Irish M. P. Sentenced

CORK, Ire., April 21.—Sean Hayes, Sinn Féin member of the British House of Commons, who was arrested during the recent meeting of the managing committee of the Cork lunatic asylum, was sentenced yesterday to six months in prison at hard labor by a military court. He was convicted of giving a false name and consorting with rebels.

Immigration Forbidden

DUBLIN, April 21.—The Daily Eireann has decreed that no citizen of the republic shall leave Ireland without permission from the proper authority.

Under the decree shipping and emigration agents henceforth are forbidden to accept passage money or to issue tickets to intending Irish emigrants unless they produce a printed permit signed by the minister for home affairs and sealed with the seal of the republic.

Persons disobeying these regulations will be "deemed guilty of a grave offense against the welfare of the state in time of war and death with accordingly."

BLACKHEADS GO QUICK BY THIS SIMPLE METHOD

Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the face go quick in this simple method that just dissolves them.

To do this get about two ounces of calomine powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds and wash off.

You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. The calomine powder and the hot water have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them open and unsightly.

Unless the blackheads are big and soft they will not come out. But the simple application of calomine powder and water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition.

You can get calomine powder at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method.—ADV.

REGARD GERMAN OFFER UNACCEPTABLE

PARIS, April 21.—Germany's proposals relative to reparations had not been received by the French government up till late last night. But officials here declared they expected they would be the same as those published in German newspapers. For this reason, they said they believed the Berlin government's terms would be "insufficient and unacceptable."

Louis Loucheur, minister of liberal affairs, has completed a plan for the economic penalties to be placed upon Germany in default of her payment of reparations. The Echo de Paris declares that his plan includes a tax of 10 gold marks on each ton of coal and a smaller tax on lignite and peat-haps manufactured goods. A tax of 40 per cent, payable in foreign money, would be levied on all exports. Germany would be allowed to manufacture certain products and deliver certain materials to the allies, the value of these products being credited to the reparations account.

FAVOR CHRISTMAS CLUB DEPOSITORS

BOSTON, April 21.—Christmas club depositors in the Hanover Trust Co., whose accounts aggregated $158,201 when the institution was closed, would receive the preferential treatment of savings depositors under a petition filed in the supreme court today by Bank Commissioner Allen.

He asked permission to transfer the Christmas club account of the Hanover Trust Co. and the sum of $321,680 from the commercial department to the savings branch of the bank. The Christmas fund was contributed by 3850 depositors, and within the meaning of the law, Mr. Allen said he regarded that fund as consisting of savings deposits.

The item of $321,680 comprises 27 notes which were negotiated in the commercial department, the money on which was taken from the savings bank department.

Work Delayed on Bridge

company at either end of the structure.

No definite information as to the cause of the delay can be secured at city hall. When the municipal council was about to approve the contract, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy of the streets and highways department said that the Boston concern was ready to start work the minute the contract was signed.

But since then Centralville people have seen no signs of life excepting on the bridge when two men with blue prints were seen gazing stupidly at the work since last fall.

However, as far as actual labor is concerned, the company's efforts to date may be enclosed in small zero.

The contract for the strengthening of the bridge is especially interesting in one section. Section 8 says: "Time is the essence of this contract." Evidently, the document has lost its essence.

The company is to replace the old wooden stringers on the bridge by steel girders and to install reinforced concrete slab flooring and sidewalks.

It is to begin work on the street railway side of the bridge and leave one-half the structure open to travel at all times. At the present time, the street railway company is using only one track and in order to negotiate the bridge, it is to close the bridge to traffic.

A steep incline and a down with an abundance that very often sends passengers sprawling all over their seats.

GUESS AGAIN, FATHER

AMERICANS ATTACKED BY GERMAN MOB

BERLIN, April 21 (by the Associated Press).—Mr. and Mrs. James E. Tobin of Chicago were attacked by a crowd of German men, women and children Tuesday as they sat on the terrace of Sans Souci park after the funeral of former Empress Augusta Victoria.

The Americans were rescued by a security policeman and two German civilians, who locked arms and surrounded them, receiving a pelting of sticks, stones and marbles in defense of the couple until they were able to escort them to the police station in Potsdam. Here a patrol of extra policemen dispersed the crowd.

During the attack the policeman and the two German civilians were unable to quiet the crowd, members of which were shouting, "Foreigners! French people!" Nor could they entirely shield the Americans. Mr. Tobin was beaten about the head and shoulders, and his wife received a bruised nose. Her hat was torn from her head, her hair was pulled and she was struck on her arms and body by umbrellas.

Potsdam police headquarters in its report said: "The Americans were not to blame, and they desire that there be no further mention of the affair."

"The mob," said Mr. Tobin, "was incited by an old woman who thought we were going to meet a man who was being chased from Sanssouci park to Potsdam. It is my opinion that we would have been killed except for one policeman and two German civilians."

DISAVOWAL BY HUGHES

Secretary Denies Making Recommendation to Congress on Immigration

WASHINGTON, April 21.—A formal statement issued yesterday by the state department said that Secretary Hughes "did not make and did not intend to make any recommendations whatever regarding immigration" in transmitting to congress reports from American government agents about the immigration of emigrants to the United States.

It was stated in an Associated Press dispatch Tuesday night that Mr. Hughes had made such a recommendation and he also was quoted as saying that "our restriction on immigration should be rigid that it would be impossible for most of these people to enter the United States," reference being made "especially to Armenians, Jews, Persians and Russians."

As a matter of fact that quotation appeared in a paraphrase of a report from the American consul in Berlin relating to people in that district, which was among a number of similar reports transmitted to the house and senate immigration committee by Mr. Hughes after Chairman Johnson of the house committee had asked for information on the subject.

Two hats and carried sweet peas and a bouquet. She was given away by her uncle, Mr. Mizzel Martin, while the groom's witness was Mr. John Barry. At the close of the ceremony a brief reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 533 Fletcher street, and later the happy couple left on an extended honeymoon trip to New York and Atlantic City. Upon their return they will make their home at 533 Fletcher street.

CARMEN VOTE ON PROPOSALS

Referendum Plans Submitted by Trustees—Leaders See Rejection

Trustees Place Cot Beds in Power Houses and Prepare for Emergency

BOSTON, April 21.—Two proposals submitted by the public trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co., one providing for a wage reduction of approximately 20 per cent on May 1, under agreement with the union, and the other for submission of the question of wages to arbitration with elimination of any working agreement with the union, will be voted upon by the company's 2500 employees. Union leaders predicted that both propositions would be turned down, but said the balloting was not in the nature of a strike vote. They were making no preparations for a suspension of work at this time, they said. Company officials, however, announced that they were ready to meet any emergency and said cot beds had been placed in power houses and car barns in every district of the road, which would be operated regardless of the action of the carmen. In letters sent by the trustees today to all employees it was said that while the trustees would prefer to continue operations with the present force they would run the road with new men if necessary.

They maintained that during the past year the cost of living had declined more than the amount of the proposed wage reduction, and that the public insisted on a lower fare. This has been announced as a policy concomitant with the lower wage.

Originally the Eastern Massachusetts employed about 5000 car men but discontinuance of non-paying lines and other reductions since the road went under public control has reduced the number to approximately 2500.

WOMEN WANT PLACE ON COMMITTEES

An entire reorganization of democratic city and town committees throughout Massachusetts, so that women shall be represented equally with men in the political machinery of the state, is being carried forward by Miss Gertrude F. Hayes, vice chairman of the democratic state committee, who visited Lowell today and interviewed prominent democrats of the city with this end in view. Miss Hayes came here as the representative of Mr. Arthur T. Lyman, state chairman of the body. Located late this afternoon, she proceeded to Lawrence, where work of the same nature will be accomplished. Miss Hayes is working west in the direction of Springfield.

"The democratic committees of the various municipalities and townships," declared Miss Hayes today, "must be changed so that women participate in them on a strictly fifty-fifty basis. To achieve this result, some of the committees will have to be completely reorganized. In Lowell there is no active committee at the present time; but it is my intention to seek to establish one. For this reason I am trying to get everyone's views, both those of men and women. In Lowell I am especially eager to find out from the most prominent people their attitude on questions dealing with reorganization of forces in this commonwealth, for Lowell is a city of ideas. Practically the whole of democratic state activity is directed by Mrs. Hayes at the present time, at Mr. Lyman, the chairman of the committee in Massachusetts, has placed in her hands most of the conduct of the affairs of the body."

RECORD BROKEN AFTER 20 YEARS

A record which has stood for a quarter century and which was never expected to be broken by the present generation of athletes was shattered recently when Charles Paddock, 20 year old track sensation of the University of California, ran the 220-yard dash in 20.45 seconds, clipping two-fifths of a second from the former record.

Paddock's feat is all the more remarkable in that a few minutes before entering the race he told the world's record for the 100-yard dash, making the century in 9.5 seconds.

Five watches, held by official timers, agreed exactly in each instance. The former 220 record was held jointly by B. J. Wefers who made 20.45 in 1898, R. C. Craig and D. P. Lippincott.

There is some question as to whether or not the record will be officially recorded by the A.A.U. as there may have been a slight wind at the runner's back. Officials of the meet, however, claim the race was run in absolute calm.

WAR HERO ACQUITTED ON INSANITY PLEA

OTTAWA, Ont., April 21.—Ellip Konowal, holder of the Victoria Cross, Great Britain's highest award of decoration, was acquitted of murder on the ground of insanity last night after the court had ruled, in effect, that the attention paid by him to the killing of a man during the war was partly responsible for his action.

Judge Cousin, in suggesting that the jury bring in a verdict of not guilty, declared that there was no question but that Konowal in the summer of 1919 had stabbed William Arthur, causing his death, but it had been shown, the court pointed out, that Konowal had received injuries in France which had caused an organic disease of the brain. The killings which the prisoner had witnessed in his four years of service, the court added, left their impression on the prisoner so that on his return to Canada when the occasion had arisen "he reverted to type, and committed an atrocious crime but was mentally deranged and should not be held guilty of murder."

Konowal will be committed to an insane asylum.

CITY OF HARTFORD MAY LOSE CHARTER

HARTFORD, April 21.—The first effort of a member of the General Assembly to obtain action against a community which seeks to use daylight saving time locally in order to be in unison with railroad train schedules and the mails, was made by Representative Wadsworth yesterday when he offered a resolution for suspension of the city charter of Hartford. The resolution sets forth that the city of Hartford, through resolution of the common council and by proclamation of Mayor Brainard has taken steps to bring about daylight saving in contravention of the standard time of the state and is in rebellion against the state. The punishment would be to suspend the charter of the city until such a time as it obeys the law. The resolution was ordered printed in the Journal and it is expected that it will be discussed tomorrow.
